Death of Pope Pius XII

The late Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, died at the age of 82 years on Thursday, October 9th. He was the 261st successor of St. Peter and had reigned for 19 years.

Amid universal expression of mourning and sympathy, one fact emerged with startling clarity: By the holiness of his life, by the love of his paternal heart for all humanity, by his utter devotion to the cause of world peace, Pius XII had won for the Catholic Church an esteem and admiration unequalled in the past 700 years. The feelings of over 400 million Catholics were expressed in an outpouring of prayer for the repose of the Sovereign Pontiff. Many prayers and Masses were offered for the eternal repose of his soul by the pupils and Brothers at Darlington.

Tribute to His Holiness Pope Pius XII

Rt. Rev. Monsignor T. O. Wallace, Parish Priest of Darlington, paid tribute to the late Holy Father while preaching at Sacred Heart Church on the Feast of Christ the King.

"Weak Catholics became stronger and all Catholics immensely proud of the obviously sincere and noble tributes paid by Press, Radio and TV to the late Pope Pius XII. Jews and men of every religious belief and of none joined in a genuine tribute.

Pope Pius XII had many gifts. Wherein lay his greatness?—the Pope of Peace; his diplomatic missions; his work for prisoners of war; his work in Germany? I doubt it. I think it lay rather in the sanctity of his life.

Last year I had the opportunity of seeing him at four audiences at St. Peter's and the Vatican. I had heard of these things. I was not to be carried away—and then I met him and talked with him for about three minutes asking for a blessing for Darlington, its people, the Nuns and the Brothers. The tall thin figure with his arms outstretched replied: "Tell them I Give them all the Blessings that Christ, Himself, would give them." The effect could not be described. Millions had met him as I had and hundreds of millions had heard about him and read what he said.

In the final analysis true greatness consists in devotion to the will of God. In a word all the world acclaims him because he was a saint. Next Saturday is November 1st, Feast of All Saints. That to me is his feastday."

Election of Pope John XXIII

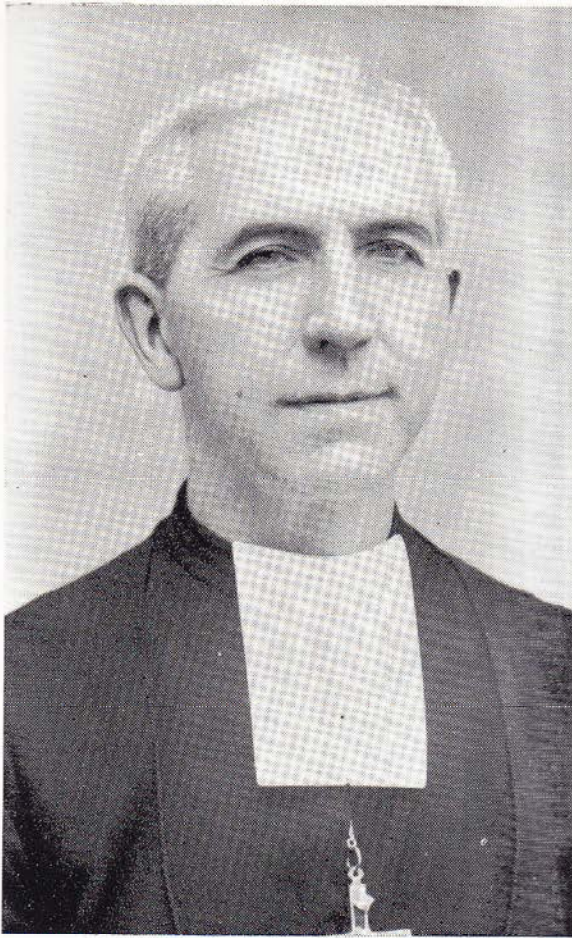

On Tuesday, October 28th, His Eminence Angelo Giuseppe Cardinal Roncalli was elected Pope and took the name of Pope John XXIII. His Holiness's election meant that for the second time in this century a Cardinal Patriarch of Venice had succeeded to the See of St. Peter, recalling the election of St. Pius X in 1903.

The New Pope has had a distinguished career. Ordained in 1904 he spent the years 1905-1914 as Private Secretary to the Bishop of Bergamo and professor at Bergamo Seminary. During the Great War he was a Chaplain in the Italian Army. In 1925 he was consecrated Archbishop and became Apostolic Delegate to Bulgaria, which post he held for ten years. Between 1935 and 1944 he was Apostolic Delegate to Turkey and from 1944 to 1953 he was Apostolic Nuncio to France. The late Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, created him Cardinal in 1953 and appointed him Patriarch of Venice.

The summary of the Life of Pope John XXIII, given in the previous paragraph, shows that he brings to his new post a vast knowledge of Church affairs and a wealth of experience in Church administration. Once again the Catholics of the world can rejoice in that Divine Providence has given them an outstanding man as Vicar of Christ.

New Superior General for Marist Brothers

Rev. Bro. Charles Raphael

A recent General Chapter of the Marist Brothers elected Very Reverend Brother Charles Raphael as Superior-General. The Reverend Brother was born at Arlon (Belgium) in 1900. The Chapter met at Grugliasco, near Turin (Italy), where deputies from 52 different provinces came together to elect the eighth successor to Blessed Marcellin Champagnat, who founded the Marist Brothers in 1817. Brother Charles Raphael has had considerable experience in the administrative side of the Order. He has been Visitor to both the Grugliasco area and the Piedmont area—the latter during World War II. For many years he has been connected with the Exercises of the Second Novitiate. In 1949 he became one of several Assistants to the Superior-General. Australia sent six delegates to the Chapter and three of them—Brothers Hilary, Maurus and Egbert—have been on the staff at Darlinghurst. The Brothers and pupils of the High School extend to the new Reverend Brother Superior-General congratulations and sincere sentiments of filial loyalty.

Rev. Br. Hilary, A.G.

Rev. Brother Hilary has been appointed an Assistant-General of the Marist Brothers. He was Provincial of the Province of Sydney and had been a teacher at Darlinghurst back in the late 1920's. He will reside at the Mother House in France and will exercise jurisdiction over all the communities of Marist Brothers in Australia, New Zealand and the dependent missions in the Solomons and New Guinea. His appointment was made at the General Chapter of the Order held recently in Turin. The Brothers and boys of Darlinghurst offer Brother Hilary congratulations on his new position and promise him remembrance in their prayers.

Rev. Br. Quentin, Provincial

One of the first official acts of the new General Council of the Marist Brothers elected at Turin recently was to appoint Rev. Bro. Quentin as Provincial of the Province of Sydney. Brothers and boys of Darlinghurst offer Brother their congratulations on his new position. Brother Quentin knows Darlinghurst quite well as he was on the staff here during the early 1940's. While on the staff here Brother completed an Arts degree with Sydney University. In recent years Brother has held many important Directorships in Sydney schools including St. Joseph's College, Hunters Hill, and Marcellin College, Randwick. Prior to his new appointment Brother was Vice-Provincial of the Sydney Province.

Senior Boys' Retreats

This year as usual Fifth Year had the benefit of a retreat at the Sacred Heart Monastery, Kensington. However, this time, helped by the generosity of the Parents and Friends' Association, we made an enclosed retreat during early March.

We spent from Monday night to Thursday morning on retreat. Fr. E. Kelly, Superior of the Monastery and an Old Boy of Darlinghurst, together with the assistance of three other priests conducted the retreat showing and helping us to achieve its purpose.

For these two short days we, in effect, lived the monastic life and in doing so realised how different it is from the false ideas many Catholics have of it. Many fellows in the class were particularly impressed by the Lay-Brothers. I don't think any of us had previously realised the amount of work they do in running a monastery. We came away from the retreat refreshed physically as well as spiritually.

Having experienced both types I consider that the majority of the boys received more benefit from the enclosed retreat than they did from the previous type in which only the school hours were spent at the monastery. In the enclosed retreat it is much easier to enter into the spirit of the exercises. During this retreat most of us had our first experience of a Dialogue Mass.

Later in the year both Fourth Year and Third Year did retreats during two school-days while Second Year and First Year had a Day of Recollection at Kensington. We are very much indebted to Fr. Kelly and the priests and brothers of the Sacred Heart Monastery for the guidance they have given us.

Ordination of Father Murray

On March 12, the pupils and Brothers of the School were privileged to have one of the Old Boys, Fr. Paul Murray, say his fourth Mass at Sacred Heart Church, Darlinghurst. He was assisted by Fr. C. Hatton and the Mass was served by the House Captains. The School Choir also participated and gave a creditable performance.

Only four days previously, His Eminence Cardinal Gilroy, raised Paul and twenty other young men to the rank, office and honour of the priesthood. After Father had said Mass for us he returned to the School where the pupils and Brothers were assembled. A warm welcome was extended to him by the Principal, Br. Demetrius, and this was seconded by the School Captain, Jim Grainger.

Jim outlined for all present Fr. Murray's career while a student at the School. He informed us that Father had played in several Premiership winning teams in the years 1944-46 but perhaps his greatest achievement was the winning of the Senior Conduct, Study and Sport Prize.

After this address Father made his reply. He said he was quite surprised at the number of incidents that Jim had mentioned and he went on to tell the boys of the debt that he owed to the old School. At the end of this speech Father was presented with a hand-carved statue of Our Lady by the House Captains on behalf of the whole School, while Mrs. Murray was presented with a plaque of Blessed Marcelin Champagnat. Finally, the traditional half-holiday was given by Father Murray, to a tumult of cheers.

OUR SEMINARIANS

Three Darlinghurst Old Boys are due for ordination in the near future. They are the Rev. John Hallinan, the Rev. Peter McMaugh and the Rev. Ken McNamara. John is a member of the Dominican Order. He is due for ordination in Sydney at the end of November 1958. Peter is receiving Minor Orders with the Marist Fathers this year and will be ordained next year. Ken is a Jesuit and will be ordained in India, where he is doing missionary work, about September 1959. Readers of this magazine are asked to pray for these young men since, as one of them said, "the priesthood isn't exactly easy to face up to and one feels the need of prayer very much".

Brother Placidus (Anthony Butler) made his vows in the Marist Brothers this year and has been teaching at St. Augustine's College, Cairns, Queensland. Jim Peoples was received into the Novitiate and took the name Brother Carl.

At St. Patrick's College, Manly, Michael Hogan is nearing the end of his studies while Eugene Szondi has just begun at St. Columba's College, Springwood. Norbert Egan is studying with the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart at the Apostolic School, Douglas Park.

Pilgrimage to Lourdes, 1958

[Written for the 'Blue and Blue' by Rev. Bro. Michael, B.A. (Hons.), a Former Director of Darlington, 1951-1954]

IN the days when public penances used to be imposed, a sinner would sometimes be ordered as penance to make a pilgrimage to some holy place. I have not, however, heard of a priest in Australia giving as penance a pilgrimage to Lourdes! Such a "penance", above all in 1958, would indeed be a sweet sorrow, and the priest's confessional would not lack penitents. Even if, in making a pilgrimage, the millions of pilgrims to Lourdes this year were not influenced by any such penalty, they were, nevertheless, faithful to a devotional practice which is enshrined in long centuries of Christian tradition. Is it only a flight of fancy to see the first Christian pilgrimage taking place on the first Easter Sunday morning? "At the hour when dawn broke on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came near to contemplate the tomb . . . But the angel said openly to the women, . . . Come and see the place where the Lord was buried." (Matt. 28:1-7.) For all Christians the "Holy Land" has been the great place of pilgrimage. It is helpful to recall that when pilgrimages to the Holy Land became extremely difficult, and the faithful were no longer able readily to visit the very places hallowed by Christ's Life and Passion, there was developed the devotion of the Way of the Cross, by which the Christian could pass from Station to Station, contemplating the scenes of the Passion as if he were visiting the very place where they had occurred. To make the Stations of the Cross is to make in spirit a pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

From the earliest centuries, also, pilgrimages were made to the tombs of the martyrs, especially to the tombs of St. Peter and St. Paul at Rome. At Rome, too, the pilgrim saw not only the tomb in which was the dead body of St. Peter, but saw also the Pope, the Vicar of Christ, in whom the authority and primacy of St. Peter lived on in every generation. No wonder, then, that in all centuries pilgrims have travelled to Rome.

The third great pilgrimage was also to the tomb of an Apostle, namely, to the shrine of St. James of Compostela, in Northern Spain. What numerous bands of pilgrims traversed Europe on their way to Compostela! Quite apart from their primary religious significance, the pilgrimages of the Middle Ages were of the greatest social and economic importance. By them communications by sea and land were developed; great roads arose where pilgrims trod, from the Channel to Canterbury, from Germany and Paris to Compostela, and, of course, "all roads led to Rome". The pilgrimages encouraged circulation of ideas, in art and architecture and literature. There was a close relation between pilgrim traffic and growth of trade. Men and women of all ranks of society were given opportunities of travel. Necessary means for the protection and sustenance of the pilgrims were organised; we know of the hospices conducted by the monks in the Alpine passes for the straggling pilgrim; we read of the "armed pilgrimages" of the times of the Crusades.

No doubt there were possible abuses in pilgrimages, and there have not been wanting critics to speak of the dangers. But it is not the practice itself, but the abuse of the practice, which should be condemned. St. Jerome stressed that while it was a great act of faith for a man to offer his prayers in the very place where the feet of Our Lord had stood, yet it was not the fact of living in Jerusalem, but of living there well, that was worthy of praise. St. Jerome also, (in making a contrast which seems to suggest that people had a rather unflattering view of Britain!) pointed out that the gates of Heaven are equally open in Jerusalem or in Britain. St. John Chrysostom claimed that there was "no need to cross the seas or fare upon a long journey; let each of us at home invoke God earnestly and He will hear our prayer." And the experienced observer of human nature who wrote the "Imitation of Christ" summed it up by saying, "So also those that go about much, seldom become holy".

The worth of pilgrimage depends largely upon the motives with which one makes it. For what reasons have ten million or more people visited Lourdes in the past twelve months, in this year of the centenary of the Apparitions at Lourdes? Are they idle tourists, travellers who seem to find a certain pleasure in merely being displaced from point A on the earth's surface to point B, and as quickly as possible? I have met this class of globetrotter elsewhere, but not at Lourdes. Are there pilgrims at Lourdes because their guide-book says that one "must" see such a painting, or sculpture, or building, or ruin? Such people crowd the Sistine Chapel at Rome, and pass interminably through St. Peter's, but Lourdes has no artistic masterpieces to attract throngs of tourists. (How significant it is that in Paris, the yearly attendance at the wonderful and world-famous Louvre with its priceless artistic treasures, is given at 631,500, while the yearly attendance at the Chapel of the Miraculous Medal, in Paris, a chapel not even mentioned in my guide books, is over 900,000. And how easy it is not to notice the humble entrance to the Chapel at 140, Rue du Bac!) And why do pilgrims return so frequently to Lourdes? I have spoken to a blind Catholic man in London who has just returned from his tenth pilgrimage to Lourdes. He would understand the attitude expressed by a drawling voice from Texas that I heard behind me in Lourdes: "Say, honey, I just can't get this place out of my system."

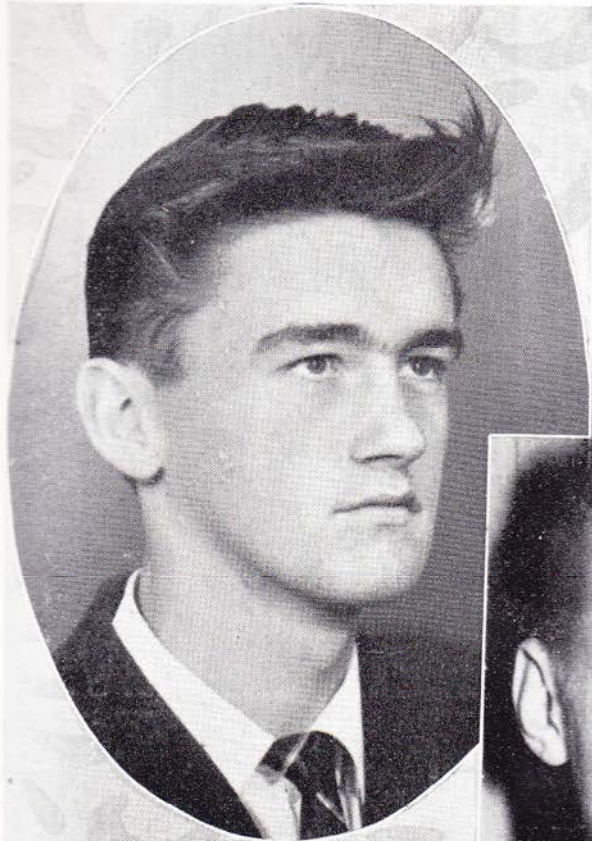

The attraction of Lourdes is not just the fascination of seeing people from all nations assembled together. To see such a variety of races is becoming commonplace; it exists in almost any carriage of the Paris Metro or in any London bus.

Pilgrims come to Lourdes in their millions because God, Who knows the instincts of the human heart, Who indeed created them in the first place, has deigned to satisfy those instincts in our own times as well as in all centuries of Christianity, by showing forth His power and goodness in a place of His choice; and, moreover, God Himself has willed that we should honour Mary, the Mother of God, whom He Himself so honours. When one reads of the events of 1858, and above all when one reads the whole life of St. Bernadette, it is clearly evident that the power of God acted, and continues to act at Lourdes. This truth has blinding clarity when one stands in the one small, low, unhealthy, crowded room—it had been a prison-cell—in which the Soubirous family was living on February 11th, 1858, the room from which Bernadette made her way to the banks of the Gave to gather wood. The events of that day one hundred years ago, were God's way of giving us a special means of expressing publicly our Faith in Him, our trust in the Blessed Sacrament, our devotion to the Blessed Virgin, our loyalty to Christ, His Church and His Vicar on earth. At Lourdes one feels a common spirit of faith and prayer and of love for Mary in all the pilgrims; it is a consolation that one does not feel so strongly elsewhere. One ~~sees~~ the unity of the Church, and is helped by it. There is a unity in prayer and devotion; one prays with the father who kneels beside his crippled son as the Blessed Sacrament is raised in blessing above him; one is happy, hour after hour, to join with the Church in praising the Blessed Mother of God, to visit the Grotto, to touch the stone where Our Lady stood and spoke to Bernadette. It is easy to pray at Lourdes. Perhaps that is a reason why pilgrims return. And they return, too, because it is a very deep joy for a child to see his Mother honoured, as the Mother of us all is honoured at Lourdes.

The 'Blue and Blue' wishes to congratulate several Darlington students who have begun training for the priesthood or religious life. They are: Eugene Szondi (St. Columba's College, Springwood), Michael Grainger (St. Clement's College, Galong), Raymond Mulvogue and Francis McMahon (Marist Brothers' Juniorate, Mittagong).

Old Boys' Family Honoured by Queen Mother

HER MAJESTY, THE QUEEN MOTHER, with the FAYLE FAMILY.

Monday, February 28th, 1958 was 'a day to remember' for Bill Fayle (L.C. 1947) and his family. On that morning he had the pleasure of showing the Queen Mother over his home which is in the Dundas Valley.

From 9 a.m. neighbours began lining the front fence and by the time the Queen Mother arrived at midday about 1700 people were gathered nearby. At the front gate the Minister for Housing introduced the Queen Mother to the Member for Parramatta and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clough, and the Mayor and Mayoress of Parramatta, Mr. and Mrs. Maloney. The official party then moved inside where they were shown over the house by the Fayle family. Mrs. Fayle, ready for any emergency, had the kettle on and the official party decided to have a 'cuppa'. The two children, Joan (3 years) and Lynne (22 months) were very shy but Bill remarked later that the Queen Mother had put both him and his wife at ease and they soon felt that she was an old friend.

A few days before this the Darlinghurst Cadet Band played at the Sydney Cricket Ground as part of a Schoolchildren's Display in honour of Her Majesty.

Champagnat Day

On the eve of the feast of the Blessed Founder, Marcellin Champagnat, the Superior of the Sacred Heart Monastery, Kensington, Father E. Kelly, M.S.C., said Mass for the School boys in the Sacred Heart Church, Darlinghurst.

Father preached a sermon on the life of the Blessed Founder and mentioned the fact that as a boy he had attended Darlinghurst and was grateful for the help he had received from the Marist Brothers. The majority of the School boys received Holy Communion at this Mass and since it was the feast of Corpus Christi then this was most fitting. On Champagnat Day, itself, Father J. King, M.S.C., said Mass in the Brothers' Chapel using the Mass and Collect recently approved for this feast.

Judge G. P. Donovan

Judge G. Donovan

Early this year the sixth Old Boy of Darlinghurst was appointed to the bench. He is Judge Gerald Donovan. Judge Donovan came to the High School from St. Patrick's after winning a State Bursary. His record shows that he was a brilliant student passing the Intermediate with eight A's and the Leaving Certificate (1926) with First Class Honours in Latin and Greek and Second Class Honours in English and French. He took up residence at St. John's College within the University and graduated in Arts in 1930 with First Class Honours in Latin and Greek. In 1934 he graduated in Law with First Class Honours and was admitted to the Bar. In recent years Judge Donovan has lectured in Mercantile Law, Torts and Contracts. Since 1951 he has been President of the Special Work in the St. Vincent de Paul Society dealing with the Rehabilitation of Prisoners. The 'Blue and Blue' would like to congratulate our newest judge on his appointment.

Our Old Boy Judges

Judge William J. Coyle attended the High School in 1879 when it was at Harrington St., City. Before being appointed to the bench he was the Crown Prosecutor.

Mr. Justice Clancy was at Darlinghurst in 1910 having come on to the High School from St. Benedict's, Broadway. Before being raised to the bench Mr. Justice Clancy was an officer of the Education Department and councillor of the Public Service Association.

The Honourable Sir Edward McTiernan, K.B.E., P.C., Justice of the High Court of Australia. He attended the High School in 1909 when it was situated at St. Mary's Cathedral. Before being appointed to the bench Sir Edward was a Cabinet Minister in the N.S.W. Parliament (1920). He held the portfolios of Attorney-General and Minister of Justice.

Mr. Justice Gallagher was at Darlinghurst in 1919. Before becoming a judge he was on the Coal Tribunal.

Mr. Justice Kelleher attended Darlinghurst in 1926. In 1955 he was appointed to the Bench of the Industrial Commission.

Judge G. Donovan was appointed this year—see above for an account of his career.

The Religious Life

(Written for the 'Blue and Blue' by Brother Quentin, B.A., Provincial, and a former teacher at Darlington.)

Within the Church there are recognised (as expressed in Canon 107) two classes of persons, Clerics and Laymen. The same Canon goes on to say: "each of these may be Religious."

The Sacrament of Baptism incorporates us all as "Laymen" into the Church. By his Ordination the Priest, called by his Bishop, is raised to a sublime vocation whereby he is empowered to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, to administer the Sacraments and to preach.

In this article it is not proposed to discuss the Clerical or the Lay state as such, both of which may lead to the perfection of charity and sainthood, but only the Religious State. The Religious State is not a new division distinct from the clerical and lay divisions of the faithful; on the contrary it is recruited from both.

The late Holy Father speaking in 1951 used these words: "The Religious State is in no sense reserved to either one or the other of the two types which by divine right exist in the Church, since not only the clergy but likewise the laity can be Religious."

From this it may be observed that women, belonging as they do to the "lay" division of the church, may become Religious. They cannot become Priests.

"THERE is nothing so harmful to Christian Wisdom," declared Pope Leo XIII, "as that it should not be known." Nothing leads so readily to misunderstanding and misrepresentation as does ignorance.

True as this is of Christian Wisdom in general, it is equally true of the subject of Religious Vocation. Many Catholics, otherwise well instructed, have failed to grasp the true significance of the Religious Life. Is it, perhaps, that they have become familiar in Australia with those forms of Religious Life which show the Religious at work in Schools and Hospitals? Have they come to think of Religious merely as teachers or nurses? Whatever be the cause, few, apart from the Religious themselves, have an appreciation of the place of Religious in the life of the Church and of their apostolic vocation.

To understand the Religious Life we must first understand the Christian life. In the revised Liturgy of Holy Week, Our Holy Mother the Church now gives us an annual reminder of our Christian—our Baptismal promises. "My dearest Brethren," the Priest says on Easter Saturday Night, "now that the Lenten observance is over, let us renew the vows of our Holy Baptism, by which we have of old renounced Satan and his works, and also the world, which is the enemy of God, and promised to serve God faithfully in the Holy Catholic Church."

To be a Christian then, we must first renounce Satan, that is, sin. When the child is brought to Baptism he has no contact with God. Baptism brings him Supernatural Life, the very life of God Himself. Sin is the very negation of this, for mortal sin destroys our Supernatural Life. Hence to be a Christian, to keep our Supernatural Life, we must renounce sin.

Secondly we must renounce the world. "The world" is anything that is not God. Just as we renounce our Christian Life if we are satisfied to remain in sin, so we renounce our Christian Life when we make anything else besides God the goal of our life. The people of the parable who were invited to the great supper had other things to attend to; the one his farm, the other his oxen, the third his wife. How many things there are we can seek after that are not God! We must use the things of this world; for this they were created by God; but a Christian must use them only as a means to go to God.

Finally a Christian must serve God faithfully in the Catholic Church. Not just in any way, not just as we think fit, but in accordance with the directives of the Church. Nor does this service of God rest merely in leading a good life ourselves. It involves also some form of apostolic work. In the light of the teachings of Christ and of His Vicar the Pope, it is wrong for even the layman to remain inactive in God's Church. Each and every one has a duty and a right, arising from his Baptism, to share in the apostolic work of the Church.

Such is the basis of the Christian Life to which we are all vowed by our Baptism. But there is in human nature a natural tendency to improve, to do better. Man, unlike the animals, is never satisfied. No doubt it is a natural tendency towards God, the ultimate and perfect Good. Such a tendency exists also on the spiritual level and it is this which forms the basis of the Religious Life . . . a tendency towards perfection of the Christian Life.

Christ Himself held out this prospect to us in answer to the young man's query: "What good must I do to obtain eternal Life?" Christ replied that he must keep the commandments . . . the ordinary requirements for a Christian Life. Finding in his soul that inclination that so many have answered since that day, the young man declared: "All this have I done since my youth. What more is wanting to me?" Here indeed is the essence of the Religious Life . . . "What more can I do?" The Religious Life is for those who are not satisfied with living a good Christian Life . . . they want to do more. Such is the generosity which touches the Heart of Our Divine Lord, for we are told that Christ "looked on him and loved him". And because He loved him He gave him that wonderful invitation: "If thou wilt be perfect, go sell what thou hast, give it to the poor, and come follow Me, and thou shalt have treasure in Heaven." Unfortunately this young man, although he had felt the urge to do something more than he had been doing, lacked the generosity to make the sacrifice that Christ asked of him.

True to Her Founder's commission to lead souls to God, the Church not only provides the way of ordinary Christian living, but also the higher path indicated by our Saviour, the way of Christian Perfection. For those who like the young man in the Gospel, have tried and succeeded in the Christian Life, the Church provides the Religious Life with its vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience, as the way for those who wish to do more. Lest the goods of this world should stand between him and God the Religious vows never to use them independently but always to seek the permission of his legitimate Superiors. Mutual love and family life he sees as wonderful gifts of Almighty God for bringing souls into this world to be saved for God. By his vow of Chastity the Religious forgoes these privileges in order to give himself directly to God, to be more free to serve Him and to work for the salvation of those souls for which He died. By his vow of obedience the Religious dedicates to God that freedom and independence of action which is his greatest natural gift. With Christ in the garden he says to Almighty God: "Not my will but Thine be done." On the Apostolic side the Religious shares in the official apostolate of the Church. Pope Pius XII has declared that even lay Religious, Brothers and Sisters, have a special, divine vocation and can labour, and very effectively, both for their own salvation and that of others. He adds: "Let no one lack esteem for the members of these Institutes . . . or think that their apostolate is less fruitful."

Such is the noble dignity of the state of life to which every Religious aspires.

On the basic principles of the three vows a wide variety of Religious Institutes has been established by the Church. Having decided to become a Religious, to serve God in a more perfect manner, a person is still free to choose one of the many "vocations" by which he may serve God. He must choose that Religious Institute that will provide him with the best outlet for the use of the talents that God has given him. Just as the young man faced with the prospect of a professional career must choose between law, medicine, dentistry, engineering etc.; or for a trade course, between carpentry, pattern making, electronics etc.; so the young man deciding on the Religious Life must make a choice. He might answer that greatest of all vocations, the Priesthood; if he has the requisite qualities he might choose to be a teacher; others will choose medicine, science, engineering, trades and so on. In the Religious Life there is scope for all talents. No talent that God has given need remain in use on the simple Christian level. It can be put to better service in the Religious Life.

We sometimes see reference to what a person must leave to become a Religious. Young people get the idea that they must sacrifice a career; that being "dead to the world" their life will be stunted and their personality repressed. This is the misunderstanding and misrepresentation bred of the ignorance of which we spoke at the outset.

In the true picture of the Religious Life there is no such thing. Ample scope is provided for all talents. There will be sacrifices, that is true. Even the Christian Life presupposes the cross. The way of Christian Perfection calls for sacrifice. Sometimes perhaps of those very interests that we personally might feel could be very useful. But there is no sense of repression, but rather of expansion, of total dedication to the work of the salvation of souls, a work that is so great that when we have expended our whole life at it we must feel we have achieved so little.

As Our Lord Himself said, "the fields are white with the harvest", and the "harvest indeed is great and the labourers are few". When we give all we have, it is but little. In this work there is no place for burying talents. They can all be used to the full. No one can feel that he has lost anything in this life when he works for God at the salvation of souls.

But Christ is satisfied with the very little that we can do. He will reward us in this life with that sense of satisfaction of sharing in a work that is of the highest order, for it is the work of God Himself. In the next life He will reward us as He promised His disciples: "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or lands, for My sake and for the gospel's sake, who shall not receive now in the present time a hundredfold as much . . . and in the age to come life everlasting."

Finally a word to Parents. It is your great dignity and privilege to have children and to bring them up to serve God. If they should be generous enough as a result of your training, to be ready to serve God in this more perfect way, do not stand in their way. Rather rejoice that you have so succeeded in the work that God has entrusted to you, that your children are ready to rise above what is merely good to do that which is better. Pray for them, encourage them.

To all who might read these pages we recommend most sincerely those words of Our Lord Himself: "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He send Labourers into His harvest." A Religious Vocation is a great grace. It is the fruit of prayer and sacrifice; a precious gift held out to those who have a generous heart.

Thanks

In addition to those mentioned elsewhere in these pages, 'Blue and Blue' expresses the thanks of the School and the Brothers to Rt. Rev. Mgr. T. O. Wallace, P.P. and the priests of the Darlington Parish for their zealous work on behalf of our boys; Rev. Fr. J. Power, Adm., St. Canice's Parish; to Mrs. Doerner and Mrs. Newman; to Messrs. G. Boyd, C. Renaud, D. Lo Schiavo, J. Langdon, S. Ogg, J. Williams, T. Swanner, T. Hannan, B. Hare, J. Winchester, B. McGee, S. Johnson, J. Pye, W. Vrolyks, A. Jones, J. Moses, G. Douglas, C. Baz, J. Malouf, G. Fallon, J. Stokes, K. Laffan, L. McCole, S. Nolan, J. Casey, K. Brownscombe, P. O'Carroll.

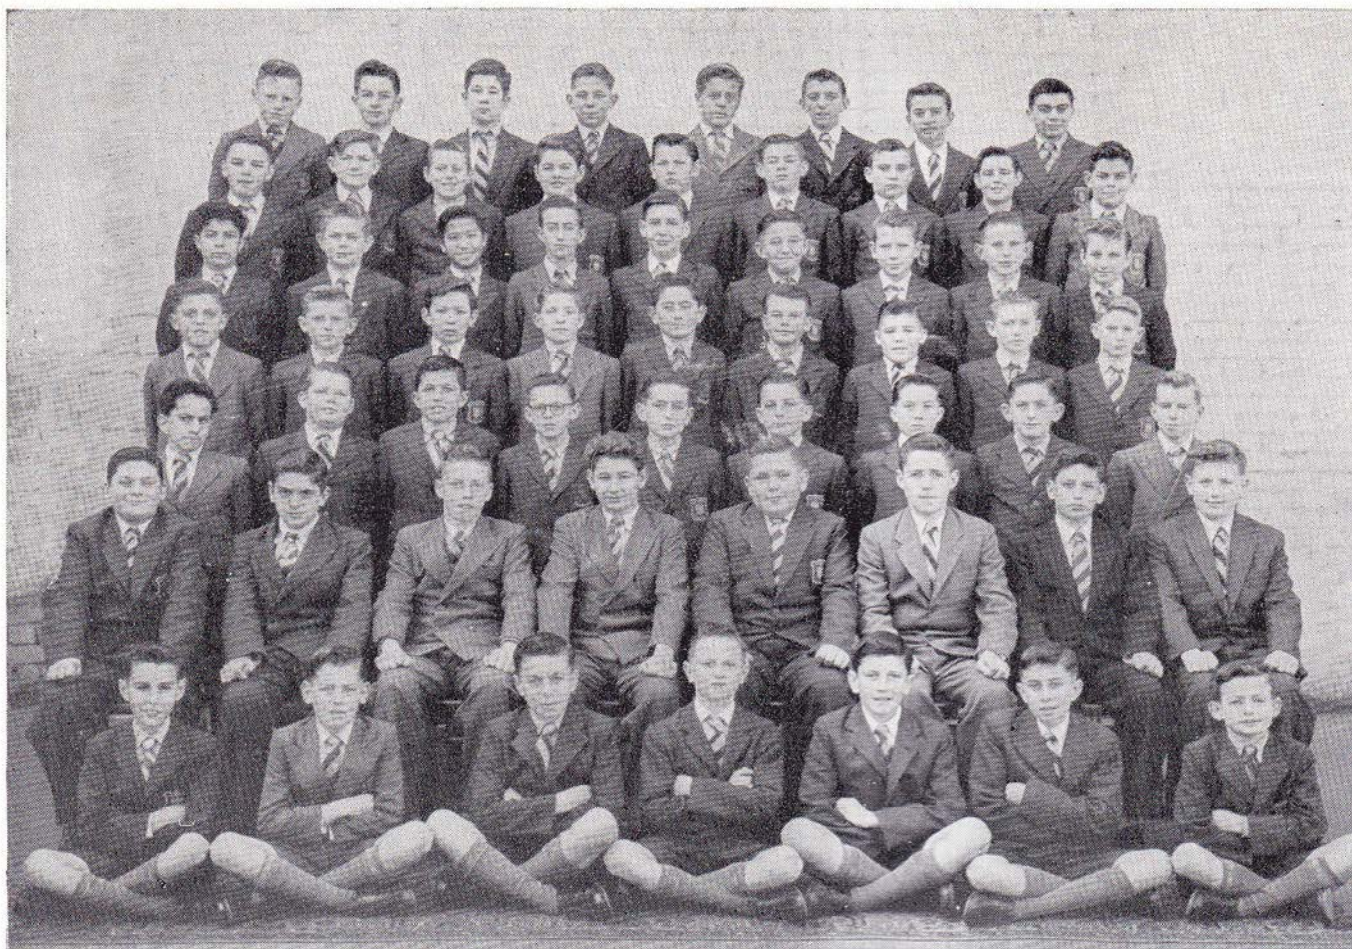

In an especial way we would like to thank Fr. J. King, M.S.C., chaplain to the community, and the Priests and Brothers of the Sacred Monastery, Kensington; Miss Gaynon, Mrs. O'Carroll, Mrs. Brandmayer and Mrs. Jaconelli.

We thank the committees of the Parents and Friends, the Men's Auxiliary and the Old Boys' Union; the nuns at St. Vincent's Hospital; Dr. J. O'Neill and his colleagues and all who have helped us during the year.

Marist Miscellanea

Brother Michael is still overseas. Having completed the Second Novitiate he is now going to remain in Great Britain and further his University Studies. An article by Br. Michael appears in this issue of 'Blue and Blue'.

Brother Dunstan left Sydney in July for the Second Novitiate at St. Paul-Trois-Châteaux, France. Brother will be away till about next Easter.

Brother Maurus, who was on the staff here about 1927, was one of two delegates elected by the Brothers to accompany Br. Provincial to the General Chapter of the Marist Brothers' Congregation at Turin in September.

Brother Cassian is now attached to the Provincial House at Drummoyne. Most of the photography in this issue is the work of Br. Cassian. Both Brother Fergus and Brother Wilbred are on the staff of the Brothers' school at Lismore.

Brother Venard is the Director of the Brothers' school at Bondi Beach while Brother Salvius is the Director of the school at Mosman.

Brother Gilbert is at Villa Maria and Brother Vianney is at St. Gregory's College, Campbelltown. Brother Albert is at Maitland.

Brother Edmundus is on the staff of St. Joseph's College, Hunters Hill. Brother Gerald is at Newcastle whence he arranges football matches between Darlinghurst and Hamilton at Gosford.

Among our Old Boy Marist Brothers are: Brother Ambrose who is the Bursar at St. Joseph's College, Hunters Hill, and Brother Swithin who is Sportsmaster at Mosman. Brother Elgar, at Kogarah, continues to add to the volume of Australian verse.

House Competition

Congratulations to the Greens on their second victory in the last four years. The final placings were: 1, Green; 2, Red; 3, Gold; 4, Blue.

The P. & F. Association treated the Greens to a banquet at the School on Tuesday, 21st October.

Cadets

THE Unit was built up to a strength of 88 at the beginning of 1958 with a big enrolment of first year cadets. A large band and two other platoons made up the Corps. Br. Samuel, O.C., and Br. Theodore, 2IC, deserve high praise for the way in which they organised and controlled the Unit throughout the year. W.O.I Ostara, of the Regular Army, showed intense interest in the instruction of the cadets and we are very grateful for his assistance.

On Anzac Day a Remembrance Ceremony was performed by the Unit at the Sacred Heart Church, Darlinghurst. Later the band led members of the Spitfire Squadron in the Anzac Day March. Some time later, during Education Week, the entire unit marched through the city. The route was from Shakespeare Place to the Cenotaph, the Town Hall and on to the Shrine of Remembrance in Hyde Park.

Specialists' Courses. Cadets attended these courses during the May holidays. Cpl. A. Stabback and Cpl. S. Coleman took courses in the 3-inch mortar; Sgt. M. Ogg, Cdt. E. Leach and Cdt. P. Gibson specialised in the M.M.G.; while Sgt. P. Hogan and Cdt. J. Richardson took instruction in the Band.

Annual Camp. The Annual Camp was held at Old Holsworthy Camp during the August holidays. First year cadets soon adapted themselves to the ways of camp life and all cadets were quickly absorbed in the activities of the Unit. The most popular exercises were the firing of the Bren L.M.G. and the Owen M.C. on the 'open range'; the night exercises and the 'mock battle'. The only disappointment was the cancellation of the night bivouac because of rain. The exceptionally high standard of the Band was shown when they won both the A grade and the Open Band Competitions thus establishing themselves as the best band in camp. Throughout the camp and at every parade during the year the high standard of the Unit was maintained by the excellent control and example of the CU/O's and the N.C.O.'s. Our thanks go to W.O.I Buchanan who looked after us so well while in camp.

The Ceremonial Parade, due to be held in the middle of October, was cancelled because of bad weather.

We would like to thank Mr. S. Verey for his help with the Cadet Band.

—CU/O J. Hahn.

IN the N.S.W. Schools' Carnival held at the end of the season, Darlinghurst won the Ten Stone Division. In becoming N.S.W. Champions the school defeated Richmond High School (11-0), Christian Brothers' High School, Lewisham (5-0), and Marist Brothers' High School, Kogarah (4-0). The trophy was presented to the School on behalf of the N.S.W. Rugby Football League by Mr. W. G. Buckley.

In the M.C.C. Competition the A Grade was the most successful team finishing in third place behind Randwick and Lewisham. Teams were also fielded in the B Grade, Under 15 and Under 14 divisions.

The school did particularly well in the Knock-out Competition conducted by Eastern Suburbs District Rugby League. Darlinghurst won five secondary divisions of this competition.

As usual Moore Park was the scene of much activity during the football season. All the usual Colour Competitions were played here each week with the greater majority of the boys of the school participating.

THE Darlinghurst teams completed another successful season in the M.C.C. Cricket Competition this year. The Under 14's were the most successful team winning the Premiership for the first time since the competition began in 1948. The A and B Grades also did well finishing close to the winners in their respective grades. The Aggregate Points Score was won by Randwick with Darlinghurst second and Strathfield third. Congratulations to Randwick on this success and to Strathfield on winning the A Grade Premiership.

Parents and Friends' Association

THE executive for 1958 was as follows:
 President: Mr. T. Akhurst.
 Vice-President: Mr. D. J. Simpson.
 Secretary: Mrs. F. Reed.
 Assistant-Secretary: Mrs. T. Akhurst.
 Treasurer: Mr. J. Langdon.

1958 has been a very successful year for the Parents and Friends' Association. The task of repaying the loan used to modernise the Brothers' house has been attacked with vigour and the Association has received the fullest co-operation of the parents of the boys. All the functions have been outstanding successes. The Fete gave the Committee great heart as a glance at the Balance Sheet will show. The Committee are extremely grateful to the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary for their assistance with the Fete. The Association helped cater for several functions during the year, such as: Football Knock-out Competition, Men's Auxiliary Smoko, Athletics Carnival, Victory Banquet for the Greens.

March: Boys' Night and Raffle	£400
May: Mother's Day Stall and Raffle	£276
July: Boys' Night and Raffle	£380
Fete and Raffle	£685
House Parties	£77

Men's Auxiliary

A meeting of the fathers of the boys was called for Friday, 30th May. Over 100 men turned up. The evening took the form of a Smoko and during it we were entertained by a magician, Mr. Hill while Mr. Carlin charmed us with his singing. Later in the evening Mr. Knight suggested the formation of an Auxiliary to help in the maintenance of the school. Mr. Hanley and Mr. Dunn of the Marcellin College Auxiliary gave us an outline of the working of their auxiliary and an indication of the amount of money saved because of this voluntary labour. The meeting received the proposition with much enthusiasm and a Committee was quickly formed. Mr. W. Knight is the Chairman and Mr. O. Howard is Secretary. Before the party came to a close the Committee had decided on the first task which was to be tackled immediately.

For the remaining two terms of the year groups of men have come along at the weekend and the amount of work done has been remarkable.

The first task was the interior painting of the school and much of this has been completed; new chalkboards have been erected; new lighting has been installed in each classroom and numerous carpentry and plumbing repairs have been effected. In the near future more seating accommodation will be provided in the yard and a large shelter shed will be erected. The financial side of the Auxiliary is handled completely by the Parents and Friends' Association. One of the best results of this effort is the way in which it enables fathers of the boys to meet one another and get to know the various Brothers.

TRIPS FOR SPORTING TEAMS

Athletes at Darlington are fortunate in that there are many parents willing to take them on trips during the year. In First Term the cricket teams had an enjoyable day playing matches with St. Gregory's College, Campbelltown, at Campbelltown. The Football Teams were taken to Gosford where through the kindness of the Christian Brothers we were able to play football against Marist Brothers, Newcastle, on the oval of the Christian Brothers' College, Gosford. Finally in Third Term the athletes travelled to Mittagong where they had a meeting with the boys of the Marist Brothers' Juniorate. Our thanks go to those wonderful people who so generously provided the transport and to the Brothers at Gosford, Campbelltown, Newcastle and Mittagong for inviting us to take part in these matches.

Social Activities

The outstanding social event of 1958 was the Farewell Dinner given to the Leaving Certificate Class by Fourth Year. The function was held at the Irish National Association Hall in Devonshire St., on Wednesday, October 29th, at 8 p.m. The general setting of the Hall was a credit to Mr. Lawrence, the Ladies of the P. & F. Association and Fourth Year.

Visitors at the Official table were Fr. C. Grew, Chaplain of the School; Mr. C. Matha, President of the Old Boys' Union; Mr. T. Akhurst, President of the P. & F. Association; and Mr. P. Gibb, member of the executive of the Men's Auxiliary. All were impressed with the confident and polished manner of the boys who proposed the various toasts. During the course of the evening we were entertained by Max Williams, Jeff Hahn and Mr. Bob Murphy.

The toast list was as follows:

Chairman: REV. BR. PATRICK

TOAST TO THE LEAVING CERTIFICATE:

Proposed by NEIL McKENNA.

Seconded by ANTHONY CRAVEN.

Replied to by MAX WILLIAMS.

Seconded by TOM AKHURST.

TOAST TO THE ALMA MATER:

Proposed by JIM GRAINGER.

Seconded by KEVIN FITZPATRICK.

Replied to by REV. BR. DEMETRIUS

Seconded by REV. BR. CLOMAN.

Address by School Chaplain:

FR. C. GREW.

Seconded by Mr. P. GIBB.

At the conclusion of the formal part of the dinner presentations were made to the School and to Brother Cloman by Jim Grainger on behalf of the Leaving Class.

Other functions held during the year included School Dances at the end of First Term and at the end of Second Term. The first was held at the school while the second was held at the Irish Hall and was attended by a number of recent Old Boys.

Near the end of the year the Ladies of the P. & F. Association gave the Greens, winners of the House Competition, a victory banquet. During the course of the banquet the Captain of the Reds, Max Williams, congratulated the Greens on taking out the trophy. Tom Akhurst, captain of the Greens, replied while Br. Ronan, House Master of the Greens, thanked the Ladies for the wonderful way the function was arranged.

DEATH OF FATHER LEO DALTON, M.S.C.

The death of Fr. Dalton, M.S.C., occurred towards the end of the year. A famous scholar and broadcaster, Fr. Dalton was attached to the Sacred Heart Monastery, Kensington, at the time of his death. He was the Editor of the 'Annals'. For many years he had been Parish Priest of Coogee. Fr. Dalton is the twentieth Old Boy Priest of Darlington to receive his eternal reward. R.I.P.

DEATH OF GEORGE MCCARTHY

Early in the year the Committee of the Old Boys' Union lost one of its keenest workers, namely George McCarthy. George was an outstanding supporter of anything connected with Darlington. His hearty laugh and ready wit always made Committee meetings pleasant. Such was his devotion to the Union that it is hard to visualise any function without him. We extend to his wife our deepest sympathy. R.I.P.

DEATH OF DR. RICHARD FLYNN

Dr. Richard Flynn who died last December was a noted surgeon and one of six brothers all of whom are Old Boys of Darlington and all became prominent doctors. Dr. Flynn, who had been ill for four months, died in Lewisham Hospital. He held degrees from the University of Sydney and the University of Minnesota. For three years Dr. Flynn was a Fellow in Surgery at the famous Mayo Clinic in the U.S.A. A Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, he was at the time of his death consulting surgeon to Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, the Dental Hospital and Lewisham Hospital. To his wife and relatives we offer our sincere sympathy. R.I.P.

Flynn, F. Curtin, Dr. W. Darragh, J. Hall.

The Appeal Committee continues the good work and the Brothers wish to thank all the members, especially Morton Quoye and Len Smith. The sum in hand at the moment is £1,000 and it is hoped that the target of £2,000 will soon be reached. All donations will be allowable tax deductions provided they are made payable to 'Marist Brothers' High School (Darlinghurst) Building Fund'.

Annual General Meeting. Once again the Annual General Meeting was held at the Catholic Club, Castlereagh St., Sydney. At this meeting the Committee for 1958 was elected.

Annual Dinner. This function, which was as successful as ever, was held at Cahill's Restaurant on Thursday, October 2. Sixty-four Old Boys were present. The Guest-Speaker for the evening was Rev. Fr. A. Ryan, S.J. a member of the 1921 Leaving Certificate Class.

Communion Breakfast. The Annual Communion Breakfast was held on Sunday, February 16. Mass was celebrated by an Old Boy Priest, Rev. Father Benedict O'Donoghue, O.F.M. The Breakfast was held at the High School and about 60 sat down to it but more than this number were present at Mass. Mr. Sid Cusack took the Chair and called on Mr. W. Knight, Q.C. to propose the Toast to the School and Brothers. Mr. J. Liddy seconded this Toast and Br. Demetrius replied. Those present included: J. Jones, J. Blakeney, T. Timmins, L. Smith, S. Ogg, M. Quoye, P. Boyd, J. Nesbitt, B. Cameron, J. Bolster, B. Timmins, C. Holden, J. Mather, J. Coen.

O.B.U. Insurance Scheme. Some years ago a very thoughtful member encouraged a number of Old Boys to subscribe to insurance policies in favour of the school. We are now reaping the benefit of this excellent idea. During the year twelve policies matured and the building fund received a cheque for over £350 — a very pleasant surprise very much appreciated by the Brothers. They wish to express their thanks to Messrs. A. J. Dignam, A. J. Wilson, E. B. Powell, A. L. Rice, J. E. Goodwin, J. R. Carrick, E. E. Anderson, H. J. O'Kelly, C. A. F. Cahill, W. N. Wall, G. Spencer and T. Timmins.

Any who may be interested in this scheme should contact the school or the O.B.U. committee.

Have you thought of helping your old school in your WILL? It is surprising how few old boys think of this. There must be many who owe a good deal of their success to the school. Here is one way to show appreciation for the Brothers' interest.

Annual Ball. Another happy evening was had by hundreds of Ex-students of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart College, Kensington and the Old Boys of Darlinghurst. Once again the Trocadero was crowded and over twenty debutantes were presented to Right Reverend Monsignor E. McAuliffe and to Judge Donovan and Mrs. Donovan. Others in the Official party were Br. Demetrius, Mrs. Wheeler, Cal Matha and Bob Timmins. The 1951 L.C. had a good group including W. Castray, L. Loker, K. Maittlen, W. Bourke and J. Hammond.

BURSARY BOARD

The Board which administers the Old Boys' Bursaries is as follows: Messrs. J. P. Baggott, B. L. Quoye, L. Smith and S. Ogg.

LIFE MEMBERS

Here is a complete list of Life Members of the Old Boys' Union: J. Liddy, J. N. Casack, Most Reverend John Toohey, D.D., Rev. A. Ryan, S. J., S. J. Carroll, J. P. Baggott, Dr. R. Flynn, R.I.P., Rev. R. B. Coughlan, Sir Edward McTiernan, S. Casack, F. J. Ruwald, T. Moran, H. Vaughan, Rev. J. Massey, R.I.P., Rev. B. Massey, R.I.P., Rev. H. Law, J. P. Faust, R.I.P., B. L. Quoye, R. Vaughan, P. F. Wall, P. Duffy, G. Smith, M. L. Coates, J. F. Connelly, E. Anderson.

The President of the Union, Cal Matha, and the Secretary, Bob Timmins, were both married recently. The Old Boys wish them every happiness in their married life.

Dario Lo Schiavo is off to London soon to further his studies in dentistry. Another in London at the moment is Alan Morton, a pharmacist. Alan is in charge of the Dispensary at Bexley Hospital, London.

Ted Niven (Dux of the School in 1928) has recently been appointed Assistant General Manager of the Government Insurance Office.

Dr. John Quoye is still as interested in cars as ever and usually manages to change to a different model at least once a year.

Fr. Herbert Finnane said Mass in the Brothers' Chapel one morning in February. After several months at the Retreat House, Mt. Alverna, he was transferred to Victoria.

Warren Castray, B.Ec.

RECENT GRADUATE

Warren Castray, B.Ec., graduated from Sydney University this year. At the moment he is studying for examinations conducted by The Australian Society of Accountants and The Chartered Institute of Secretaries. When not studying Warren sells Accounting Machines for the National Cash Register Co. Pty. Ltd.

Many Darlinghurst boys play in the Darlinghurst C.Y.O. cricket team. This team played the Present Boys in February. Among the best players were Rodney Clements, Keith Maittlen, Peter Quinnell, Stan Browne, Denis Ryan, Dominic Alfano and Len Loker. This team won the B Grade section of the C.Y.M.C.A. Competition. Trophies were won by: S. Browne, best batsman; D. Ryan, best bowler; D. Alfano, best fieldsman.

Neil Armstrong of the popular and well-known family is back in Australia at the top of the Dental tree. He is now Orthodontics Registrar at Melbourne Dental Hospital and has brought back to Australia an English wife and three Australian children.

Leaving Classes of Other Years

This issue of the 'Blue and Blue' reproduces photographs of Leaving Classes of years gone by. Four are featured, namely 1910-11, 1921, 1931 and 1941. Many of these Old Boys have gone to their eternal reward and others have lost contact with the Old Boys' Union. However it is interesting to see how many of them have fared.

1910 Class. In the back row J. Main is Director of Public Works and F. Callanan is with the Rural Bank. T. O'Connor is in the Registrar-General's Department in charge of Primary Applications. B. Skelly has retired from the Agricultural Department but J. Burke is in the Survey Branch of the Registrar-General's Office. C. Lynch is a barrister in Sydney. At least seven members of the class are now deceased.

1921 Class. A. Luciano is General Manager of Century Batteries. In the second back row we have the late Mgr. Giles, R.I.P. T. Hayes is a surveyor with the Water Board. N. 1931 Class. In the back row M. McDonough is a dentist; J. Beckley a pharmacist and Fr. B. Sykes, M.S.C. is on the teaching staff of Downlands College, Queensland. In the third row J. Comans is a leading Sydney Solicitor; Dr. C. Cummins is Deputy Director-General of Public Health and L. Foran is a pharmacist at Sutherland. In front F. Robinson (Rev. Br. Ferrer, F.M.S.) is in charge of Marist Brothers' College, Ashgrove, Queensland. P. Costa is a pharmacist at French's Forest.

1941 Class. In the back row F. Burke is with the Transport Department. P. Boyd is with the Rural Bank and R. Settree is with the Commonwealth Bank. Dr. P. Cunningham is practising at Hurstville. In the second row Rev. K. McNamara, S.J., is doing missionary work in India and will be ordained a priest next year. Dr. W. Doherty has just returned from overseas while L. McHugh holds the degree of Bachelor of Agricultural Science. P. Murray is a mining-engineer and manages one of the R. W. Miller mines—'Rhondda'—at Teralba. In the front row Rev. B. Fleming, S.J., was ordained last year and is now studying at Louvain University, Belgium. J. Ryan, a sergeant with the R.A.A.F., was killed in action. Dr. R. Connolly is an Honorary to Hobart Hospital. J. O'Connor is a pharmacist while Dr. B. Pollard is an anaesthetist.

Seven of this class joined the Armed Forces within twelve months of leaving school. They were J. Ryan, J. de Fina, R. O'Brien (R.A.A.F.); P. Boyd, F. Burke, J. Doran and B. Macinante (A.I.F.).

The Editors are sorry that they have not more information concerning these past classes and would appreciate any information that can be sent in to the school.

Brother Fabian (Geoffrey Hynes) of the St. John of God Order is still attached to the Vatican Pharmacy. He returned to Australia during August and toured the establishments in Australia and New Zealand with the Superior on visitation. He would like to hear from Old Boys—his address can be obtained at LL 1797. His brother, Teddy Hynes, Duntroon graduate, is on exchange to England.

In the Penrith area we have Ted O'Loughlin now well established as a solicitor and Peter Bell pre-eminent in the Medical Profession.

Brother Brendan (Kevin Maguire) took his final vows in the Marist Brothers last year and is at present teaching at Ayr, Queensland. He hopes to see his home town again this Christmas. His brother Terry is the stock controller for Moffat-Virtue, manufacturers of agricultural machinery. He lives at Narrabeen and is the father of three vigorous little boys.

Martin Jackson is still working at the Lands Department and is playing good football. Both he and John Solomons toured Queensland playing matches with the Lands Department of Queensland.

Tony Dignam is Traffic Manager of T.A.A. Melbourne (Head Office) and has two children John and Anne. Peter Dignam is in practice with an orthodontist in George's Terrace, Perth. He is doing his Master's Degree at the University of Western Australia.

Ted Anderson is still in the Pharmacy business but is finding it hard to adapt himself to stonemasonry. Nevertheless he has made quite a good job of making a show place of his home at Bondi.

1954 L.C. Warren Eggins is in his final year of Pharmacy as is Dick Martin. Denis Towson is doing well in final Accountancy. Others doing Accountancy include Barry Power (when not playing golf for Bonnie Doone—Champion Club 1958), John Pass, Reg Scott and Kevin Hoy (when not driving his M.G.). Ron Vickery usually manages a few distinctions each year in Architecture. John Chippendale has been exiled to Gundagai but is visited by class members travelling to Melbourne. Also in the Teaching Profession is Kevin Riolo. The class sends its congratulations and/or condolences to John Pass due to be married in February.

1951 L.C. Bill Bourke is doing well with the Commonwealth Bank and is chief teller at the Paddington Branch. Jim Hammond is a qualified surveyor for the Lands Department and sees more of the western plains than he does of the big smoke. John Vickery working with Department of Munitions in Melbourne is due to be married in Tenterfield in January. Ron Brayan struggles on with the meters at Bailley Meters, Regents Park. Warren Castray reckons he can sell 'National' Accounting machines. Ron Miller is lecturing at Balmain Teachers' College on methods for 'one-teacher' schools. Len Loker is still balancing books at Drummoyne branch of the 'Wales'.

accountant with the Lands Department and a keen St. Michael's golfer.

Bob Baird has spent the last two years following his new career of flying. After several months charter flying in Central Queensland he joined TAA flying DC3's out of Brisbane. Lately he has taken over Viscounts on interstate runs.

With L. J. Hooker we have Frank Fisher in charge of the drawing office and Barry Ryan in charge of maintenance of building.

Ray Lindwall is again leading the Queensland Sheffield Shield side. While playing in Sydney last season Ray set two records. This match was his 54th Shield game and in it he brought his tally of wickets in Shield cricket to 211—a record for a fast bowler.

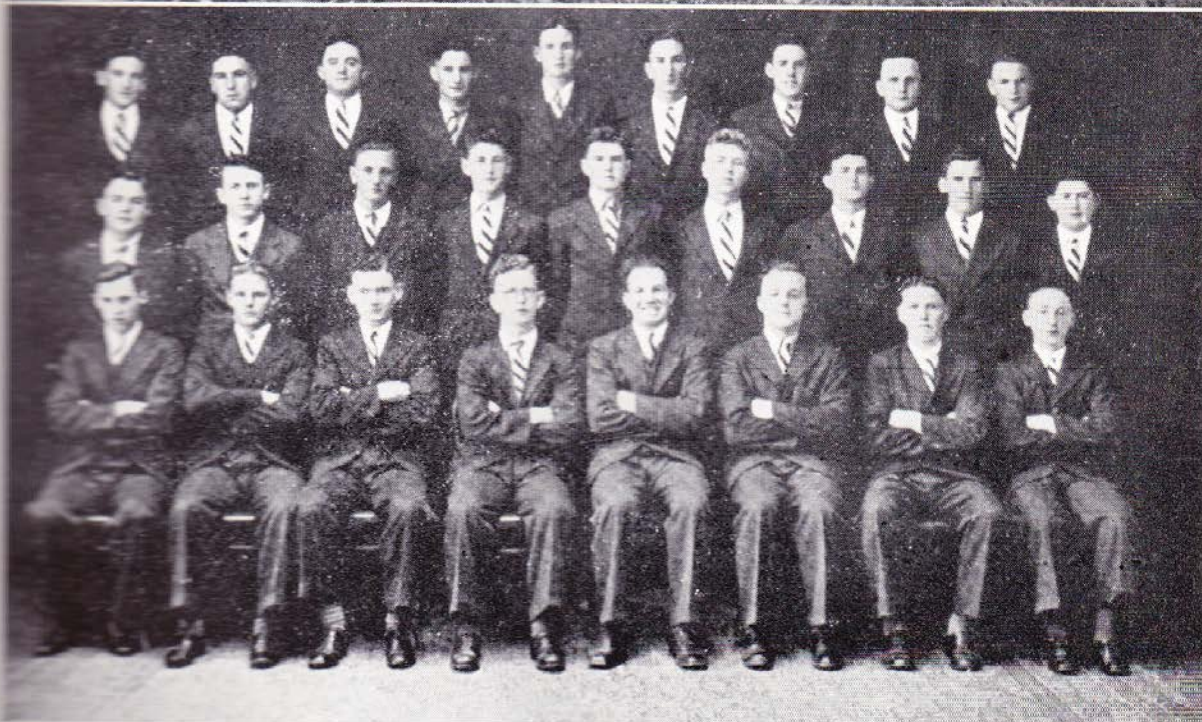

Jim Collins (L.C. 1950) has an interest in the local Pharmacy at Riverwood.

The McMaugh Family continues to prosper. Father Patrick is curate at Rozelle. Bill has a Diploma of Chemical Engineering from Technology as well as a B.Sc. He is now doing Electrical Engineering. Bernard is married living at Kingsford and working for AWA. He is a B.Sc. from Sydney and has done well in electronics. Peter is preparing for ordination with the Marist fathers.

Among the Grade Footballers we have the Thornton brothers playing for Canterbury. Ron plays for the Firsts and Brian plays for the Seconds. Denis Ryan played some games for South's Thirds. Brian Staunton played a few games for Balmain but has now retired. He has built himself a house at Rodd Point and has settled down to family life. Brian Ogg is the regular lock for Newcastle Rugby Union teams. During the year he played against the Maoris.

Morton Quoye is doing brisk trade selling quality shoes to the people of Padstow.

Sons of Old Boys of Darlinghurst of the early '20's are well in the news in Rugby Union. John Cusack (son of John Snr.) was awarded "Player of the Year" trophy for the Riverina. Tony Dixon (son of Harry), Pat Kerr (son of Hilary) and Brian Scullard (son of Bede) were all in the pack of the victorious S.J.C. Firsts this year.

Our Younger Old Boys

Many of those at school in recent years came to various functions during the year while others called in at the school. The Brothers were very pleased to see them all. It is impossible to record all in the Blue and Blue but we have tried to remember as many as possible.

Communion Breakfast. Among the younger Old Boys at the Mass and Breakfast were: Anthony Gibb, Mario Adamo, Denis Ryan, Hugh Deacon, Roger Wilms-hurst, John Gleeson, John Solomons, Vytas Nurka, Alfred Silvester, Denis Slade, Peter Armstrong, Peter Allan all of whom were from the 1957 Leaving Class.

Other keen supporters of this function were Bill Akhurst, Michael Thornton, John Sheehy, Peter Quinnell, Graham Mayne and Denis Dorahy.

The May Ball. Noticed partnering debutantes at the Annual Ball were Denis Ryan, Jim Patterson and Ron Townsend. They looked particularly smart in 'formal wear'. Others present included Graham Mayne, Bill Akhurst, Peter Morris, Remus Marcincus, Bob Wright.

Present Boys v. Old Boys Football Match. Two games were played between the school teams and the Old Boys. A pleasant day made the function most enjoyable. Once again many young Old Boys from the recent Leaving Classes were present. The stars included: Chris Hourn, Alfred Silvester, Terry Ellsmore, John Solomons, Stan Serafin, Bernard Cannon and Adrian Nesbitt. Others to play a very good game were Warren Eggins, Reg Scott, Denis Brooks, Mario Adamo, Jaros Lysowycz, Brian Wyndham and Greg Christensen.

Fete and Games Night. Many of last year's Leaving took the opportunity of a Games Night or Fete to call back to school and pick up their Leaving Certificate or Intermediate Certificate. Seen on such occasions were John Solomons, Denis Ryan, Graham Crick, Denis Kennedy, Eddy Amor, Denis Brooks, John Rea, Robert Mellor, Terry Hoy, Owen Waterhouse, Tony White, Barry Knight, John Phillips, Paul O'Brien, Greg Maidment, Brian Wilson, Anthony Gibb and Eugene Szondi.

Dance. Quite a few Old Boys came to a dance for the Senior Classes held at the Irish National Association Hall. Among the happy throng were Andrew Murphy, Geoff Holden, John Moore, Tom Seeto, Bill Akhurst, Barry Geraghty, Bill Watters, Graham Crick, Denis Kennedy, Laurie Wigmore, Mario Adamo, Denis Ryan, Terry Hoy, Tony Hannan, John Gleeson, Tony Dixon, Alfred Winch and Max Quinnell. All voted the Hall one of the nicest in Sydney.

Med. Students, John Moore and Tom Seeto, are now in Second Year and have begun practical work—they specialise in 'carving up' at the moment. A less gruesome outlook is taken by Eddy Wing who is doing Engineering.

Purdue University, Indiana, U.S.A., is keen on enrolling Bob Vagg for the Second Semester of this Academic year starting in January. Bob thinks their Scholarship will be very valuable as it will enable him to study Industrial Management. Apparently Purdue, a member of the 'Big Ten' Athletic Group, have heard of Bob's long distance running.

Max Yip now has his own stand and own truck at the City Markets as well as a share in the "Green Leaf" Cafe, Dulwich Hill. Things are very rosy as far as Max is concerned and he makes it a point of dropping in now and again. Another to call in was David Evans who has joined the Air Force. He looks quite smart in the blue uniform.

Reg Richardson has made a name for himself in the west of the State at Broken Hill. He is doing accountancy while working in the office of one of the mining firms. He is the Secretary of the Broken Hill branch of the Young Christian Worker group.

John O'Rourke is with the Auditor-General's Department while John Gleeson is taking on Pharmacy.

Members of last year's Leaving Class have taken up many varieties of employment or study. Among the Bankers we have Peter Armstrong, Jaros Lysowycz, Roger Wilmshurst and Roger Newton. At Sydney University we have representatives in many faculties. Dentistry seems most popular with Alfred Silvester, Mario Adamo and Paul O'Brien taking this course. Ken Edwards is doing Medicine while Anthony Gabb is doing Engineering. The Teaching Profession has claimed Terry Ellsmore (Armidale Teachers' College), Ross Graham (Wagga Teachers' College), Denis Brooks and Denis Ryan (Sydney). Law studies were undertaken by Denis Slade and Barry Stewart while Greg Maidment is doing Science. At the University of Technology we have Geoff Holden doing Science as a Teachers' College student while Brian Wilson and Alfred Ekstrom are taking Engineering.

Ralph Crawford is working at Bunnerong doing a Trade's Course in Electrical Fitting while Hugh Deacon is with Lyle Davis Advertising Agency.
