Ordinations

Rev. Fr. Herbert Finnane, O.F.M.

Darlinghurst. The Mexican Boys' Choir sang at the Mass and also at the small function to welcome Fr. Finnane back to the School. Fr. Finnane addressed the boys on the need for more religious vocations.

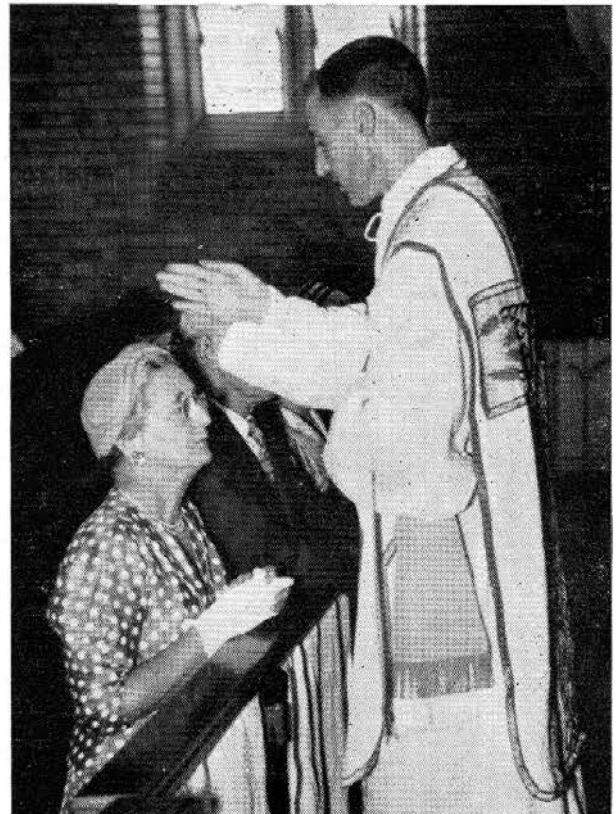

On behalf of the boys, Denis Ryan presented Father with a stole. Father then honoured the occasion by granting the traditional holiday.

Two Darlinghurst Old Boys were raised to the Altar during the year, both of them as religious priests. The first to be ordained was Rev. Fr. B. Fleming, S.J.: the other was Rev. Fr. H. Finnane, O.F.M.

Fr. Brian Fleming was ordained at St. Mary's Church, Ridge St., North Sydney, in January, 1957. Fr. Fleming was in the Leaving Class at Darlinghurst in 1941, he was particularly good at languages. In 1942 he entered the Jesuit Novitiate at Watsonia, Victoria, and later proceeded to Melbourne University where he took out his degree. After ordination this year he was sent by his superiors to Louvain University, Belgium, where he will take on even more advanced university study.

Fr. Herbert Finnane was ordained at Mary Immaculate Church, Waverley, in July, 1957. Fr. Finnane was in the 1949 Leaving Class and the Special Prize List for that year shows him as Dux of the School. Most of his studies for the priesthood were done in Melbourne. The school was fortunate in that Fr. Finnane was able to re-visit us shortly after his ordination. He celebrated Mass for us in the Sacred Heart Church,

Over the years, the High School has been blessed in the number of boys who have taken up the religious life. Their names are printed on page twenty.

Fr. Fleming blesses his mother.

Senior Boys' Retreats

Once again Darlinghurst boys climbed the hill to the Sacred Heart Monastery where they spent many hours in retreat. This year we held four sessions at the Monastery. Firstly the Senior boys (Fourth and Fifth Years) held a two-day retreat late in June; then Third Year had a two-day retreat; Second Year went out for a day of recollection and finally First Year had a day of recollection early in July. The days were spent in assistance at Holy Mass at which many boys received Holy Communion, in hearing instructions from the Sacred Heart Father in charge of the Retreat and in private prayer both in the Chapel and in the grounds of the Monastery. The majority of the boys entered well into the spirit of the exercise and received much benefit from the instructions given. We are grateful to Father Kelly and his community for their interest both in the boys and the Brothers who went out to the Monastery. In particular we would like to thank Fr. K. Graydon and Fr. D. Cox for the interesting manner in which they conducted the retreats.

Our Seminarians

Nearing the end of their training for the priesthood are two members of the 1946 Leaving Certificate Class. They are John Hallinan and Paul Murray. John is in the Dominican Order and is stationed at Wahroonga at the moment while Paul is preparing for Minor Orders at St. Patrick's College, Manly. In the Society of Mary we have Peter McMaugh and Paul Mitchell both studying at St. Peter Chanel Seminary, Toongabbie. In the Missionary Society of the Sacred Heart we have Michael Fallon, who is preparing for the priesthood while Norbert Egan is at Douglas Park where he intends becoming a lay-brother. Also at St. Patrick's College, Manly is Michael Hogan while John Sheehy is at St. Columba's College, Springwood. Ken McNamara is preparing for ordination in the Society of Jesus. At the present time he is doing mission work in India.

Third Year in Retreat at the Monastery, Kensington.

Rev. Brother Fergus, B.A.

Brother Fergus was appointed Headmaster of the High School, Darlinghurst, in January, 1955. He had previously been Director of St. Anne's, Bondi Beach, and the High School, Mosman. During Brother's two years at Darlinghurst the school achieved outstanding success. The future will record these years as a peak period in the history of Darlinghurst. The school enrolment reached 435—the highest ever; the Leaving Certificate class secured thirteen Commonwealth Scholarships—an achievement of which any school would be justly proud; and in the realm of sport successes were better than ever before.

Brothers on the staff at Darlinghurst will always be grateful to Brother Fergus for successfully securing the Loan which made it possible for much needed renovations to be made to the Brothers' residence.

All who knew Brother Fergus realised how devoted he was to the welfare of the school and the Brothers, and it was with considerable regret that they learned that a breakdown in health made it necessary for Brother to leave Darlinghurst. Brother is now taking things more quietly at our school at Lismore. About the middle of January the P. & F. Association entertained Brother at a function at the school and made a presentation to him as a mark of their gratitude and esteem.

The Brothers, boys and friends of the High School thank Brother very sincerely for the excellent work he did at Darlinghurst and wish him good health and God's blessings in the years to come.

Marist Miscellanea

Brother Michael, B. A. (Hons.). At the present time Brother Michael is overseas. He is doing the Second Novitiate in Southern France. Letters received from him indicate that he had a very enjoyable trip over and was fortunate enough to be received in audience by the Pope. After his novitiate he will proceed to England where he will be able to visit Marist establishments in the British Isles.

Brother Edmundus, B.A., B.Ed. Brother Edmundus returned from abroad towards the end of the year. He has written an interesting account of his visit to one of the Shrines of the Blessed Virgin Mary which is found in another part of this magazine.

Brother Gregory, B.A. Brother Gregory is on the staff of the Marist Brothers' School, Auburn, while Brother Victor Bernard, B.A. is on the staff at our High School at Kogarah.

Brother Gerard, M.A. completes his term of office as Superior of the Brothers' community attached to St. Columba's College, Springwood, at the end of this year.

Brother Dunstan is in charge of the Brothers' school at Casino and Brother Venard is in charge of that at St. Anne's, Bondi Beach.

Brothers on the staff here in recent years are Br. De Sales now at North Sydney; Br. Gerald at Newcastle; Br. David at St. Joseph's College, where he is Assistant-Rowing Master and has Br. Francis as a companion on the same staff; Br. Jude is recovering very well from his serious illness and soon hopes to return to the Missions in the Solomon Islands; Br. Cyrillus is at the Minor Juniorate, Bowral; Br. Gilbert at Villa Maria still finds time to take an interest in Darlinghurst teams; Br. Athanasius is at North Sydney while Br. Albert is at Dundas; Br. Wilbrid is keeping Br. Fergus company on the Far North Coast at Lismore.

OUR OLD BOYS

Br. Salvius (Glass) after putting our new school at Daceyville on its feet, was selected to go to the Second Novitiate, France. He returned a few months ago and is busy arranging for the setting-up of the Scholasticate at Dundas.

Br. Ferrer (Robinson) is in charge of Marist Brothers' College, Ashgrove (Brisbane) where he has Br. Peter (Carrick) on the staff. Between them they are gradually raffling the 'Gold Coast' of Queensland in a series of raffles which the Darlinghurst P. & F. find profitable ventures.

Br. Alban, B.A. (Doyle) is also in Queensland at Eagle Heights.

Br. Stephen (Farrell) has kept the Sports-writers busy recording the achievements of his footballers and athletes at St. Joseph's College. Br. Stephen won the Juvenile Athletic Trophy at M.B.H.S.D. in 1936. On the same staff is Br. Arnold (Dennis).

At M.B.H.S. Kogarah as well as Br. Victor Bernard, mentioned above, we have Br. Elgar (Murphy) and Br. Oswald (McNamara).

Br. Roger, B.A., now in the Melbourne Province, has not enjoyed the best of health in recent years. The 'Blue and Blue' extends to him best wishes for the future and a speedy recovery.

Br. Vianney (Dignam) is finding life down on the farm at St. Gregory's, Campbelltown, both full and interesting, while Br. Lucius (Burnheim) leads a quiet life at Daceyville.

The Mahon brothers, Br. Donald and Br. Hubert, are stationed at St. Patrick's and Auburn respectively. Br. Nicholas (Curnow) is at Casino with Br. Dunstan and Br. Brendan (Maguire) is at Ayr, Queensland.

The Right Honourable Lord Mayor

The Brothers and Boys of the Marist Brothers' High School, Darlinghurst, are proud to be able to congratulate Alderman Jensen, an Old Boy of the School, on his election as Lord Mayor of Sydney. He is the second of our Old Boys in succession to be elected to this position — his predecessor being Alderman Patrick Hills.

Alderman Jensen was at Darlinghurst during 1927, before proceeding to St. Joseph's College, Hunters Hill. We wish him success in his office and hope to see him in it for many years to come.

With Our Lady of Fourviere

(Written for the 'Blue and Blue' by Rev. Brother Edmundus, B.A., B.Ed., a Former Director of Darlington, 1948-1950.)

The Basilica of Fourviere.

FOURVIERE is a hill. Brother Kenneth and I were conscious of this as the funicular railway pulled us up its steep slope on that morning of the 13th September, 1956. We were to become more acutely conscious of it when, some nine months later, we toiled laboriously in the same direction — this time on foot — with a group of international Second Novices from the village of St. Quentin-Fallavier.

We were carried up the slope that has been hallowed by many saints on pilgrimage, and by Blessed Marcellin Champagnat whenever he was in Lyon. We arrive eventually in front of a beautifully proportioned basilica, eighty-six metres long by twenty-five metres wide. The approach to the main doorway is by a broad sweep of stone steps, about twenty-five of them, I think, the full width of the building at the base and converging gently to the porch. The principal facade consists of a broad, high portico surmounted by an open gallery supported by four fluted columns of polished granite, each about eight metres high. The gallery is decorated by eight robustly sculptured angels, while above this, is an intricately woven triangular framework containing the Vierge Protectrice seated on her throne, receiving the homage of personages who have figured in the religious history of Notre Dame de Fourviere. For Lyon is historically a city of Mary, and every 8th December, when the exterior of the basilica is illuminated, the inscription picked out in lights for the whole city to read is 'Lyon for Mary'.

The exterior of the basilica is richly sculptured with scenes and personages of the Old Testament prefiguring Mary. On the towers are depicted Mary's virtues: fortitude, with Samson destroying the lion and Jacob wrestling with the Angel; justice, with David felling Goliath and Solomon giving judgment; and so on. Aaron's sister, Miriam, and Debora, Judith, Esther, Rebecca and Rachel all have their places, personifying Mary's Faith, Hope and Charity. We step into the central nave through bronze doors, six metres high and almost three metres wide. Exquisite workmanship on the panels has depicted two angels, one supporting Noah's ark, the other the ark of the covenant. From these two superbly executed symbols of Mary, our eyes stray to the frieze above the doorway, where the sculptor Belloni has made the image of Mary Immaculate come to life out of stone, with our first parents reverently kissing the folds of the robe of the new Eve. A large ribbon of relief chiselled on the external porch to the right of the bronze doors has special interest for us, for among the servants of Mary depicted there Blessed Marcellin Champagnat has a prominent place.

On entering the basilica we are astonished at the contrast with the exterior. Outside was strength and grandeur. Here is grace and sheer beauty, as the nave and choir sparkle with light and gold; mosaic glitters on walls and ceiling, and pale blue marble columns support gilded and enamelled arches. On the side wall to our left large mosaics depict the history of Mary in the universal Church, while on the corresponding wall to the right scenes portraying Mary in the history of France are shown. The first scene is of the Council of Ephesus, in 431. It shows St. Cyril of Alexandria proclaiming in the presence of the Papal legates and the Empress Pulcheria, and amid the applause of the populace, the dogma of the Divine Maternity. Next on the same wall is executed the Battle of Lepanto, while in the third place is the Proclamation of the Immaculate Conception by Pope Pius IX. The Pontiff is shown standing upright on his sedia, with hands outstretched, in the presence of a vast gathering of Cardinals and Bishops, while above in heaven the angels rejoice at the newly proclaimed dogma. Lower down angels are seen carrying the gold statue which now adorns Fourviere, and Mary is shown appearing at Lourdes as if in confirmation of the dogma.

Before coming back along the Epistle side we take in, with our eyes, the sanctuary of the church. In the centre six columns of beautiful reddish marble, tinged with white, surround a rich marble ciborium. Beneath this on a dais is the image of Mary hewn from a block of white carrara marble. In her arms is the Infant Jesus ready to bless.

The large mosaics on the Epistle side walls show the arrival of St. Pothin at Lyon, where he was subsequently martyred; the vow of St. Louis XIII, with the king offering his crown to Mary; and finally there is a marvellous series of three tableaux showing Joan of Arc: Joan hearing her voices at Domremy; Joan triumphant at Orleans; and Joan succeeding in having the Dauphin's coronation carried out at Rheims.

Next we sought out the Ancienne Chapelle which stands nearby. This chapel is the Temple of the Virgin of Fourviere. The Basilica in all its glory has been built to honour her, but the ancient chapel is her home; and there she was with only her crowned head visible and all the rest of her buried in a shapeless mass of silky stuff.

So we came up to Our Lady of Fourviere, walking over the stone floor slabs hallowed by the footsteps of Our Blessed Founder and of Venerable Claude Colin and of all those ardent young students who came here in 1816 and promised Our Lady that they would found the Marist Society for the resurrection of France. And the plaque we were seeking is inside the sanctuary on the Epistle side, proclaiming that it was near this spot that Blessed Marcellin Champagnat conceived the pious plan of founding the Institute of the Little Brothers of Mary (Marist Brothers).

As we read the ex-voto marble plaques of a great variety of sizes that cover a large part of the Chapel walls, we were walking where St. John Vianney walked before he went out to do battle with the devil at Ars, and where St. Peter Chanel walked when he came to confide his Apostolate to the Queen of Apostles before setting out for Oceania and his glorious death. Blessed Peter Julian Eymard also prayed here as a Marist Father, and here three times received the command to go through Mary to Jesus in the Eucharist and went from Fourviere to found the Society of the Blessed Sacrament. Little Therese Martin (St. Therese of Lisieux) came here on pilgrimage before she entered Carmel, and numerous other saints in the course of centuries, some of them known only to God.

But for us Marists the most intimate link with this hallowed spot was that here in 1816 a group of Lyonais seminarians, Claude Colin and Marcellin Champagnat among them, pledged themselves in solemn prayer: 'We, the undersigned, wishing to labour for the glory of God and Mary, Mother of Our Lord Jesus Christ, affirm and protest that it is our sincere intention and fixed purpose to consecrate ourselves, as soon as it may be opportune, to the foundation of the most pious congregation of the Marist Fathers. Therefore, by this present act, we irrevocably consecrate ourselves and all that we have to the Society of the Blessed Virgin Mary'.

And so it was that as two Australian Marists went down from the mountain it was already determined in our hearts that we should return. And almost a year later we did return, this time twenty-five of us, on foot, almost each one from a different province of the world-wide work that originated here in the fervour of a group of eager young levites. And Marcellin Champagnat, and Claude Colin, and Peter Chanel, and Julian Eymard, and John Baptist Vianney were not very far from us as we sang together the Salve Regina and renewed aloud for Our Lady of Fourviere, the vows that made Marists of us all.

Presentation of Certificates

His Eminence, Cardinal Gilroy honoured the High School by presenting the Leaving and Intermediate Certificates to last year's successful students. The presentation was made in the Chapter Hall on Wednesday evening, April 24th. His Eminence congratulated the boys on their successes, spoke at length of his own debt of gratitude to the Marist Brothers and praised the parents who, in his opinion, are among the most heroic members of the community. Mr. W. Knight, Q.C., Senior Crown Prosecutor, a prominent Old Boy proposed a vote of thanks to His Eminence. His speech on the foolishness of seeking happiness outside the precepts of religion received much praise, especially from His Eminence. Details of these successes are recorded elsewhere in the magazine.

DEATHS OF FR. DOWNEY AND FR. MASSEY

As the "Blue and Blue" goes to press it is with great sorrow that we learn of the deaths of two Old Boy Priests.

Fr. Maurice Downey was ordained in 1922 and since 1939 has been priest-in-charge of the Holy Family Parish, Lindfield. Fr. Bernard Massey was at Darlinghurst in the 1920 period and has been priest-in-charge at Blacktown.

Scholasticate of the Marist Brothers

(Written by Brother Ronald, B.A., B.Sc., B.Ed., Ph.D., Master of Scholastics)

Blessed Marcellin Champagnat.

ON the 27th October of this year His Eminence, Cardinal Gilroy, blessed and opened the new scholasticate of the Marist Brothers at Dundas. Named "Champagnat College" in honour of the founder of the order, this new institution cost a quarter of a million pounds to build.

Why, it may be asked, in these days of crisis in Catholic education, when so many new schools are wanted, so many additional classrooms are needed, and so many more Religious required—Why should the Marist Brothers be directing their attention to a training college of such proportions?

Such an institution, it is true, will do nothing to relieve the problem of accommodation in Catholic Schools. Neither will it mean any immediate relief in the shortage of teachers. For some years, in fact, in view of the longer and more extensive training to be given, it will tend to slow down, rather than speed up, the normal flow of new teachers into the schools.

Why such an undertaking, then, at this time? The answer is simple: it is the mind of the Church.

This mind is reflected not only in the tradition of the Order but also in the pronouncements of the more recent Sovereign Pontiffs. "Perfect schools," said Pius XI, "are the result not so much of good methods as of good teachers, teachers who are thoroughly prepared and well grounded in the matters they have to teach; who possess the intellectual and moral qualifications required by their important office."

This view Pius XII corroborates. "Good teachers," he told the Fifth American Congress on Catholic education at Havana in 1954, "should have perfect human formation, intellectual and moral."

"The teaching office," the Holy Father continued, "was a lofty position which called for intellectual discernment and for goodness of heart, for capacity for intuition and delicacy of spirit, for adaptability and adjustment as well as human depth, capable of hearing all for love of neighbour. Good teachers need a professional competency, at a minimum above average and better still, outstanding on all levels of instruction and in each of the specialized fields, if it is not to be unworthy of a mission which serves not merely the people and the state, but also God, the Church, and souls."

High ideals! Yes; but capable of attainment. Hence the purpose of institutions such as this new scholasticate.

THE SCHOLASTICATE

"Scholasticate" is the name given to the place where the young Religious, having finished his preliminary studies in the novitiate, comes to complete his higher academic studies. His special task in this new stage is to equip himself as a teacher, and generally adapt himself to the practical living of his religious life and the workaday needs of his profession.

This stage is of paramount importance. On it depends not only the full and proper development of his own life but also the fruitfulness of his later apostolate with youth and ultimate contribution of the glory he will bring to God. Small wonder that the religious orders are coming to place such enormous stress on this work! No room for narrowness of outlook here. "Take a broad and generous view" of this phase of your work the Holy Father told religious superiors; and "let there be no parsimony".

STANDARDS

By their Rules the Marist Brothers are urged to "obtain those qualifications which are necessary for the success of their mission". Generally speaking, those "qualifications" follow the pattern of the particular country in which they happen to be working. But whatever they are, standards must be maintained. And what goes for Marist Brothers goes for other orders as well.

The Church never puts any great store on merely average results, nor tolerates low standards in the natural realm just because her true mission lies in the supernatural sphere. What is naturally good, or beautiful, or true, the Church honours and defends as in some way an image of God Himself. Those who defend mediocrity in the natural order, on the plea that their real interests are the supernatural, neither speak nor act the mind of the Church.

LIBERAL EDUCATION

Nor would they reflect the mind of the Church who tend to think, as is too frequently the case, of the scholasticate as a mere "training college". The modern bias towards methods that detract from content finds no endorsement in a religious institute. Technical training in the skills of the profession are regarded as essential for those engaged in teaching and is envisaged in the mind of the Church.

But it represents only one aspect of the formation of a Religious; for the other aspect no suitable satisfactory substitute for an all-round liberal education has yet been suggested.

CO-OPERATION WITH OTHER INSTITUTES OF LEARNING

Not all this formation can be given to the young Religious in his own scholasticate. Nor is it any disadvantage that it cannot. Many advantages other than the purely academic are to be derived from the frequenting of other institutions of higher learning, be they University, University of Technology, or other specialized schools. From none of these advantages should the young scholastic be debarred. These other institutions, after all, constitute a part of the world he will make better by his presence. It is the same world, moreover, in which he will later train boys to live. Not to know it well would deprive him of half his effectiveness.

SPIRITUAL AND INTELLECTUAL FORMATION

Parallel with these profane studies will go a course in religious studies—philosophy, theology, scripture, and religious pedagogy—all presented at the same scientific level as the profane studies, and offering an equally high degree of intellectual challenge and satisfaction. This balance of the profane and the religious is essential. Without it there would be a dwarfing of one or the other that would be disastrous.

This last point is cardinal. It would be an easy matter to show in every one of the recent utterances of the Holy Father on this point, this constant stressing of the fact that intellectual and spiritual development must go hand in hand. One is to stimulate the other, sustaining it, enriching it—until is achieved the full realization of what St. Paul has called the "perfect manhood . . . the mature measure of the fullness of Christ". (Eph., 4:13; Gal. 4:19.)

DONATIONS TO THE SCHOLASTICATE CHAPEL, DUNDAS

The three Associations connected with this High School, namely the Ladies' Auxiliary, the P. & F. Association and the Old Boys' Union, each donated a pew to the Scholasticate Chapel.

A plaque giving perpetual remembrance for these three groups has been placed in the Chapel recommending the Brothers to pray for their intentions.

Cadets

THE Unit was given permission by the Army to build up its strength to eighty-eight at the beginning of 1957. As a result a large band of young and eager first-year cadets joined the Unit. Under the guidance of Br. Samuel, O.C., and Br. Theodore, 2IC, and the N.C.O.'s these rookies were soon initiated into Army ways. They retained their enthusiasm throughout the year and were particularly pleased with their first taste of Camp.

Marches. On Anzac Day the band at the invitation of the R.S.L. marched through the city with the veterans of former wars. Our boys led the members of the W.A.A.F. Association and the Headmaster received a very fine letter of appreciation from this Association a few days after Anzac Day. The turnout of the band brought favourable comment from several radio announcers stationed along the route. A few months later the whole unit marched through the city during Education Week.

Specialists' Courses. Two cadets attended these courses at Holsworthy during the May holidays.

Cdt. R. Carmody — bugle.

Sgt. J. Murray — 3-inch mortar.

Annual Camp. The Annual Camp was held at Singleton during the September holidays.

Rain restricted the movements of the cadets for the first three days but the Unit kept up its good spirits despite this trial. The most popular exercise was the firing of the bren L.M.G. on the open-range. The first-year cadets entered into the spirit of the camp with remarkable keenness, no doubt influenced by the good example of CU/O

D. Ryan, CU/O J. Hahn, W.O.II M. Wilkinson and the N.C.O.'s. Our thanks go to Sergeant-Major Jury who looked after us so well while at Singleton.

Ceremonial Parade. The ceremonial parade was held at Rushcutters Bay Oval on Friday, October 18, at 8 p.m. The unit was inspected by Major F. J. Ahern, a distinguished Old Boy of the High School. Major Ahern said that he was very pleased to be associated with the Old School again and was delighted with the turn-out of the unit. He felt that a unit such as ours developed within a boy a spirit of loyalty which would prove of immense value to him as a man in later years. Major Ahern presented trophies to the following:

1. Brigadier Hinton Trophy for the most efficient cadet: CU/O D. Ryan.
2. Most consistent in attention to duty: W.O.II M. Wilkinson.
3. Senior Marksman, .303: CU/O J. Hahn.
4. Band Trophy: Drum-Major J. Gleeson.
5. Most efficient instrument player: Sgt. D. Slade.

After the parade the unit gave several demonstrations. Firstly we had the Sergeants' Guard Change. Then followed a weapons display in which both the 3-inch mortar and the Vickers M.G. were fired. Supper was served by the ladies of the P. & F. Association.

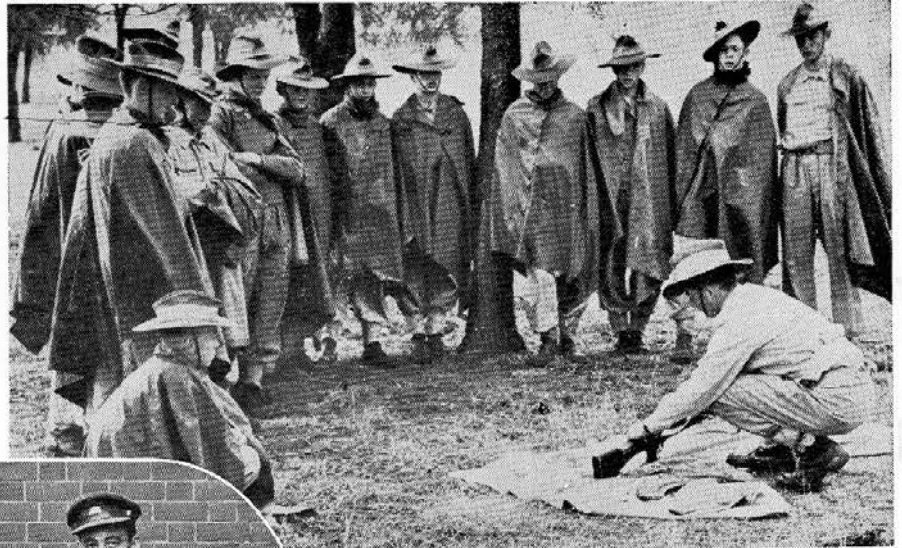

We are grateful to Sergeant-Major Ostara and the staff at South Head for the interest they have taken in the unit during the year. We would also like to thank Mr. S. Verey for the capable way he has trained the band.

THIS year the High School fielded teams in two competitions. The M.C.C. We would like to thank Anthony Hannon for giving up so much of his time to help with the refereeing of the House Competition games.

Social Activities

House Captains:

Back: D. Ryan.

Front: A. Silvester, R. Renaud, M. Adamo.

The major social events were all concentrated in the third term. Their success was due in large measure to the co-operation of the P. & F. Association.

About the middle of October the winning House Team, the Reds, were given a victory banquet. Denis Ryan, on behalf of the School, congratulated the Reds on being victorious two years in succession. The captain of the Reds, Alfred Silvester, replied on behalf of his team. He attributed most of the success to the organizing ability of the House Master, Brother Samuel.

Thursday, October 31, was a particularly enjoyable day for the 1957 L.C. On this day, Fourth Year entertained them to a Farewell Dinner. The dinner was formal and all present were impressed with the way in which the selected boys delivered their speeches. The toast list was as follows:

Chairman: Rev. Brother Cloman.

Toast to the Leaving Certificate:

Proposed by Jim Grainger.

Seconded by Tom Akhurst.

Reply by Mario Adamo.

Seconded by Peter Allan.

Toast to the Alma Mater:

Proposed by Denis Ryan.

Seconded by Geoff. Holden.

Reply by Rev. Brother Demetrius.

Seconded by Rev. Brother Patrick.

Toast to the Ladies' Committee:

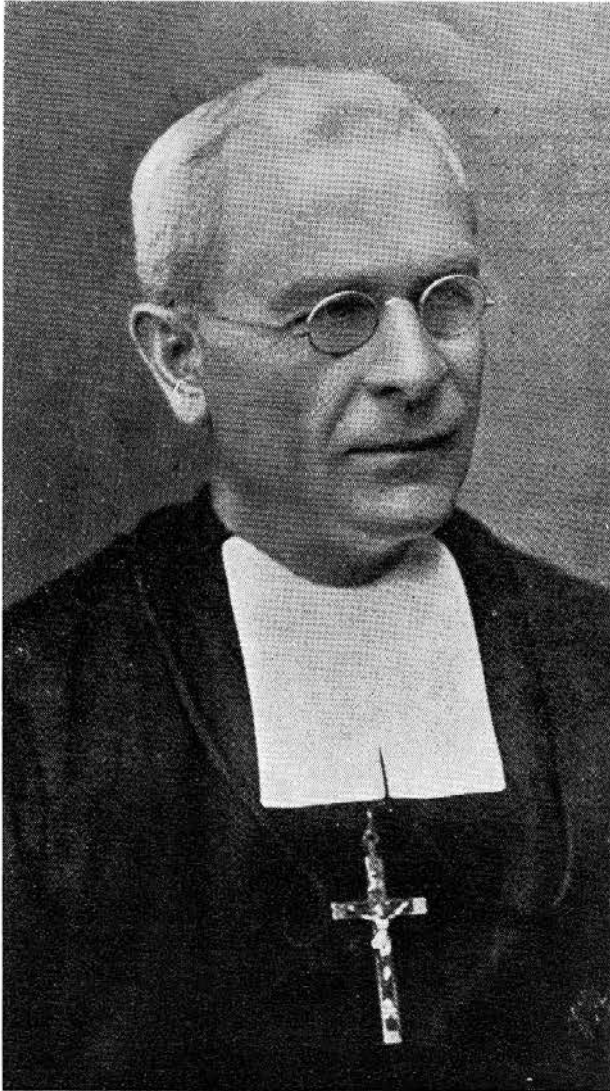

Proposed by Max Williams.

Seconded by Alfred Silvester.

The excellent way in which the banquet was conducted brought a fitting close to the school life of the L.C. 1957.

On the night of October 31, a School Dance was held in the School Hall. The dance committee consisted of several Fourth Year boys, namely, Max Williams, Tom Akhurst, Jim Grainger and Des Cannon. Much thought was put into the preparations and the committee was more than pleased with the success of the evening. Parents and others present were most impressed with the friendly atmosphere of the evening. We are again indebted to the P. and F. who sponsored the dance and provided the supper. Mr. Tom Akhurst, the M.C. kept things moving and made all our visitors feel at home. Our special thanks are due to Sister M. Benignus and the Fourth Year girls of Holy Cross College, Bellevue Hill for the wonderful co-operation they gave us. The standard of the function was such that it left nothing to be desired.

Death of Brother Clement

ON Saturday, September 1, there occurred the death of Rev. Brother Clement, former Assistant-General. He died at the Mater Misericordiae Hospital, aged 90 years.

Born in Maitland, Brother Clement came of a stirring family which has given two sons and four daughters to the services of the Church. After joining the Brothers he began his teaching career at St. Patrick's, Church Hill. During his long life as a Brother, he was Director of several schools, including St. Joseph's College, Hunters Hill and Sacred Heart College, Auckland. Other posts he occupied included Master of Novices; Provincial of the Australian Province; and Assistant-General for the Provinces within the British Commonwealth. His greatest work for the Institute was done as Assistant to the Reverend Brother Superior-General. He occupied this post in the order from 1928 till 1952. The good name that the Marist Brothers have in Australia is due in large measure to the way in which Brother Clement inspired the Brothers to live.

The Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated at St. Benedict's, Broadway, by Fr. Roche and the funeral left for Mittagong later in the morning. A second requiem was celebrated by Dom. David, O.S.B., at the Juniorate and the funeral took place at the Brothers' cemetery.

May his soul rest in peace.

BARRY CHALLIS

Barry Challis entered Fourth Year at Darlinghurst in January, 1956, after winning an Intermediate Bursary at the Christian Brothers' School, Rozelle. During the year he suffered from glandular trouble and was forced to miss much school. Towards the end of the year he entered hospital and it was found that he had contracted cancer. His death in January came as a sad blow to all who knew him at Darlinghurst. Despite the fact that the school was on holidays several Brothers and boys were present at the Mass for the repose of his soul. May he rest in peace.

Parents and Friends' Association

THE executive for 1957 was as follows.
 President: Mr. T. Akhurst.
 Vice-Presidents: Rev. Brother Demetrius; Mr. D. J. Simpson.
 Secretary: Mrs. F. Reed.
 Assistant-Secretary: Mrs. T. Akhurst.
 Treasurer: Mr. J. Langdon.

The result of this year's effort was excellent. The main sources of revenue were:

Donations .....	£60
Ladies' Luncheons and Parties .....	£95
Art Unions .....	£387
Fete .....	£548
Film and TV Nights .....	£137
Boys' Nights .....	£244

To aid the Executive in the task of organising functions, a Working Committee was formed, consisting of: Mrs. Quinn, Mrs. Travers, Mrs. Cavanaugh, Mrs. Mayne, Mrs. Charlesworth, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Casey.

The Brothers are particularly grateful to the ladies of this organisation who provided the banquets at the end of the year. The arrangements for the Victory Banquet for the Reds were exceedingly well done while those for the Farewell Banquet to the Leaving Certificate were outstanding. The general set-up of this latter function was such that it imparted an atmosphere to the occasion which was reflected in the general demeanour of the boys. Many of the ladies returned to school that night to aid with the organisation of the School Dance. As a result the last day of school for the L.C. 1957, was one which all the senior boys will remember for years to come.

The main work of the Association for the next few years is the repayment of the loan raised to modernise the Brothers' residence. The Association has guaranteed to pay off the £5000 loan in a period of not more than ten years. With such an objective in view the Association soon found that it had the whole-hearted support of all the parents connected with the school.

The Ladies' Auxiliary

Once again the Marist Brothers are indebted to the Ladies' Auxiliary for the wonderful support they have given the school. The names to be recorded are those with which 'Blue and Blue' readers have become familiar over the years. The group includes: Mrs. Dignam (President), Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Heathwood, Mrs. Staunton, Mrs. Moroney, Mrs. Halcro, Mrs. Mulvogue, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Hart-cher and Mrs. Downs.

As usual they helped immensely with the Fete. The Afternoon Teas, Sweets Stall, Grocery Stall and a Fancy Goods Stall were run by them. During the year they joined in the House Parties, American Teas and other such functions organized by the Ladies of the P. & F. Association.

We are indebted to them for their consistent help over a large number of years.

Vice-Presidents: Sam Ogg, Pat Carroll, Charles Glass, Sid Cusack, John Dennis, Len Smith.

Secretary: Morton B. Quoyle.

Assistant Secretary: Mark Trainor.

Treasurer: George McCarthy.

Committee: Messrs W. Wall, R. Graham, H. Barclay, D. Murphy, Dr. J. Quoyle, W. Brennan, E. Anderson, G. Maguire, F. Durack, C. Mather, E. Linder.

Honorary Auditor: Mr. F. Downs.

THE Old Boys' Union has had a severe setback by the resignation of its energetic President Mr. Peter Dignam who has moved to Perth. We wish him well in the pursuit of his profession in that city.

Communion Breakfast. The annual Communion Breakfast was held on Sunday, February 2, 1957. The Mass was celebrated at the Sacred Heart Church, Darlinghurst, and the Breakfast followed at the School Hall where the Old Boys were able once again to recall incidents in their school days.

Annual General Meeting. This year the Annual General Meeting was held at the Catholic Club, Castlereagh St., Sydney, on February 13, 1957. At this meeting the Committee for 1957 was elected. This was the first year the General Meeting was divorced from the Communion Breakfast and the Committee thought this was a very successful innovation.

Annual Dinner. The Dinner was again held at Cahill's, Elizabeth St., Sydney, on Thursday, October 3, 1957. Sixty-three ex-students were present and it was good to see some of the old faces that were unavoidably absent in other years. Mr. John Jackson proposed the Toast to the Union and he was seconded by Mr. George Charker. Senator John Armstrong, seconded by John Donnelly, proposed the Toast to the Alma Mater, to which Rev. Brother Demetrius replied.

Annual Ball. The Ball, which was conducted in conjunction with the Ex-students Association of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart College, Kensington, was an outstanding success both from the financial and the social points of view. This was the first since our affiliation with Kensington Ex-students that we exceeded the Trocadero quota. Debutantes were presented to the Right Reverend Monsignor E. McAuliffe, Parish Priest of Kensington, and to Senator John Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong.

Old Boys' Appeal

The committee of the Union is sponsoring an appeal to raise funds for the repair of the Brothers' residence. The committee will try to contact all ex-students and solicit their help. A building fund is to be established and it is hoped that the Committee can hand over to Brother Demetrius £2,000 by early 1958. The School is glad to acknowledge the help being given by the Directors of the Appeal — namely: The Honourable Sir Edward McTiernan, K.B.E.; Senator John Armstrong; Geoffrey I. Davey; E. Anderson; W. Conroy; J. Donnelly; J. Baggott; G. Charker; E. Ogg; B. Quoyle; M. Quoyle; L. Smith; M. Trainor; T. Timmins — all of whom are outstanding men both in their professions and in their loyalty to the School.

Sporting Fixtures. Both the football and cricket matches against the Present Boys were played at Lyne Park, Rose Bay. The Old Boys won the cricket but the Present Boys won the football. Both functions were most enjoyable and it is a pity that not more Old Boys were able to come. The Present Boys and the Brothers prepare for these matches and it is only right that sufficient Old Boys come to ensure good matches.

At a function to farewell our President, Peter Dignam, who is now practising dentistry in Perth, we had the pleasure of seeing Bob Walker (L.C. 1944 — Stamp Duty Office) and Kevin Torpy (L.C. 1945 — pharmacist at Villawood).

Science: Bill Akhurst and Greg Joss both of last year's L.C. began Science at the University this year. Bill is doing his course in conjunction with The Sydney Teachers' College.

Engineering: Wally Trofimenko and Eddy Wing (L.C. 1956) are doing this course.

Arts: Tony Hannon, Michael Frawley and Brian Trembath all of last year's L.C. are concentrating on a liberal education.

Economics: Bob Vagg (L.C. 1956) is the only Darlinghurst representative in this faculty, as far as we know. When not studying Bob's main interest is athletics. At the moment he is re-writing the record book as far as Junior distance events are concerned. Sportswriters predict big things from him in events like the mile during the coming season.

Cadet A. Nesbitt (Duntroon).

UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY:

In the School of Commerce we find: Denis Towson, John Pass, Barry Power, John Boyce and Bill Barry. Barry Power plays golf for Technology, of course.

Among the budding architects are Ron Vickery and Bob Sibthorpe, both of whom are doing Architecture III. Miklos Bures is in Second Year of the same Faculty.

Engineering seems to be the most popular attraction for our boys at Kensington. Electrical: Kerry Ryan, Jim Nicoll, Denis Dorahy and John Sutton. Civil: Jim McFall, Alan Barnes and Bob Kember. Others in this faculty include Peter Warrilow, John Greaves, Bill Cramsie and John Booth (aeronautical).

Doing surveying at Technology are Kevin Bertram and John Bickett. Les Woodley is doing Science while Paul Langford is doing Metallurgy.

Many Old Boys have jobs with various Government departments. Those that come to mind are: Tony Hynes (Customs), Graham Mayne (Education), Kevin Ryan (Taxation), Sid Hill (Motor Transport). Accountancy always attracts many including: Brian Wyndham, Roger Ford, Jim Brown and Bill Watters, while among the Bankers we have Dom Alfano, John O'Rourke, Bill McCarthy and Michael Murray. Insurance is the field which has attracted both Denis Lloyd and Max Quinnell. Those to take up teaching recently are Kevin Riolo (Engadine) and Peter Morris.

John Sheehy is doing well at St. Columba's College, Springwood as is Jim Peoples at Marist Brothers' Juniorate, Mittagong. At R.M.C. Duntroon Adrian Nesbitt is making excellent progress.

Among those seen at the Old Boys' Dinner held at Cahill's early in October were: Carl Moroney, John Nesbitt, John Small, Jim Wright, Gavin Dumbrell, Barry Power, Reg Scott, Bob Sibthorpe, Denis Towson, Ron Vickery, Kevin Riolo, and Graham Mayne.

The Editor realises that this list of Old Boys and their activities is far from complete and would welcome additional information from any Old Boy at any time.

The Director of the High School desires to convey sincere thanks to our many advertisers and respectfully requests of our readers to accord them all possible support.

The Old School Bell

The bell that hung from the, bluegum bough,
When the world was young, it hangs there now.
You can hear it spell the same old word,
That very same bell our grandfathers heard—
S-C-H and O-O-L,
That was the song of the old school bell.

But clear and strong from the same old bell
A different song you can hear as well,
A golden rule for the world, you'll find,
When the days of school are far behind—
The words ring true from the old school bell:
Whatever you do, you must do it well!

I'll travel one day . . .

Like my Uncle Charlie, I'm going to see England and America when I grow up. Already I'm putting my pennies away in an A.N.Z. Savings Account. Uncle Charlie started it for me with 5/-.

He says I should use my A.N.Z. Savings Account to save for other things, too. By the time I've grown up, I want to have a lot of money in the bank, so I'm taking his advice. My A.N.Z. Money Box is nearly full already.
